INDEX

INDEX

Agreements. See Treaties, conventions, etc.
Andersen, Meyer & Co., 151
Andrew, G. Findlay. See under China: Protection: Kidnapping: Negotiations.
Armaments. See Disarmament Conference.
Arms and munitions. See under China and Sino-Japanese dispute.
Aviation. See under China.

Baker, Charles, kidnapping of. See China: Protection: Kidnapping.
Bandit and communist activity. See China: Political situation: Communist activities; China: Protection of American and other foreign lives; also Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Action by Japanese armed forces against Chinese bandit and guerrilla bands; and Sino-Japanese dispute: Protection.
Barcelona convention (1921), cited, 584–585
Belgium, consultations with United States regarding Sino-Japanese dispute, 231–232
Borah, William E. (Chairman of Senate Foreign Relations Committee), letter from Secretary Stimson, Feb. 23, relating to the Nine-Power Treaty, cited, 85, 127, 166, 301, 348
Boxer Indemnity payments. See under China: Claims; also under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Chinese administrative services: Foreign and domestic loan service.
Boxer Protocol, cited, 333, 563
Boxer uprising of 1900, allusions to, 308, 363
Boycotts. See under Sino-Japanese dispute.

California Alien Land Laws of 1920 and 1924, 708
Canada, consultations with United States regarding Sino-Japanese dispute, 388–390, 404–405, 405, 418
Canton faction, 14, 29, 53, 154, 195, 268, 358, 441–442
Chaco dispute: Declaration of neutral nations, Aug. 3, parallel with non-recognition principle involved in Sino-Japanese dispute, 314, 401;
Chaco dispute—Continued.
relationship to Sino-Japanese dispute, feeling of League officials concerning, 321–322, 401
Chamberlain, Culver B. See Japan: Assault.
Chang Hsueh-liang. See under China.
Chiang Kai-shek. See under China: Political situation.
China (see also Sino-Japanese dispute), 1–463 passim, 464–671
Arms and munitions (including military aircraft), export to China (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute), 580–596
Competition for market among United States and other foreign countries, 583, 586–590, 591–595; U. S. attitude, 590–591
Restrictions on transportation of shipments: Attitude of Canton regime toward Nanking Government, difficulties caused by, 591–592, 595, 596; French efforts to stop shipments of other countries through Indo-China, and U. S. attitude, 580, 581–584, 586–588, 590, 593–594; Hong Kong authorities, policy on shipments through Hong Kong to Canton government, 581, 584–586, 591
U. S.-British discussions and attitudes, 581, 584–586, 591–593, 596
Aviation (see also Arms and munitions, supra), development of Chinese air force, discussion between Gen. Chiang Kai-shek and American Military Attaché concerning, 37, 38–39
Baker, Charles, kidnapping of. See Protection of American and other foreign lives: Kidnapping, infra.
Bandit and communist activities. See Political situation: Communist activities, infra; Protection of American and other foreign lives, infra; also Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Action by Japanese armed forces against Chinese bandit and guerrilla bands.

China—Continued.
Boxer Indemnity payments. See under Claims, infra; also under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Chinese administrative services: Foreign and domestic loan service.
Boxer Protocol, cited, 333, 563
Boxer uprising of 1900, allusions to, 308, 363
Boycotts. See under Sino-Japanese dispute.
Canton faction, 14, 29, 53, 154, 195, 268, 358, 441–442
Chang Hsueh-liang: Japanese opposition to, 77, 139, 164, 180, 194, 200, 215, 251, 281, 291, 302, 307, 312–313, 333–334, 375, 447; Lytton Commission, interview with, 154–155; military forces, 22, 164–165, 395; resignation as Peiping Pacification Commissioner because of opposition of Wang Ching-wei over "nonresistance" policy, 195, 196, 199–200, 201, 358
Chiang Kai-shek. See under Political situation, infra.
Chinese Eastern Railway. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria.
Claims (see also Protection of American and other foreign lives: Murder of Henry Ekvall: U. S. claims, infra), 114–115, 353, 442–443, 538, 544, 547, 548*n*, 553, 608–627
American claims outstanding against China (see also Boxer Indemnity payments and Hukuang Railway Loan of 1911, infra): Nanking Indemnity payments, U. S. representations against default by Chinese Government, 621, 622; U. S. insistence on constructive action by Chinese Government toward adjustment and final settlement, 615, 621–624, 625–627
Boxer Indemnity payments to United States, Great Britain, and Italy, Chinese proposal of postponement:
China Foundation, opposition to postponement, 620–621
Information concerning proposal and Chinese efforts to gain acceptance, 608–610, 610–611, 617–618
Italian and British positions concerning proposal, 609, 612–613
China—Continued.
Claims—Continued
Boxer Indemnity payments—Con.
U. S. position based on assurances of continuation of cultural projects supported by payments, 610, 611, 612–615, 616, 619, 621; Chinese position, 615–616, 617, 619–620
China Inland Motors, claims against Chinese Government, 538, 544, 547, 548*n*, 553
Hukuang Railway Loan of 1911:
Chinese efforts to secure additional loan, 624; position of J. P. Morgan & Co., 624–625
U. S., French, and British efforts to reach an understanding as to servicing, 618, 619, 622
Sino-Japanese dispute: Establishment of Claims Commission by "Manchoukuo," 353, 442–443; question of settlement of claims growing out of military action at Shanghai, 114–115
Communism. See Political situation: Communist activities, infra; Protection of American and other foreign lives, infra; also under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria.
Courts. See Extraterritorial rights, infra.
Customs Administration. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Chinese administrative services.
Evacuation. See under Protection, infra.
Extraterritorial rights (see also under Press restrictions, infra):
Judicial status of "Manchoukuo" in U. S. Court for China, question of, 277–278
Shanghai International Settlement court system. See Shanghai International Settlement: Court system, infra.
Financial situation:
Effect of seizure of Manchurian customs and salt revenues:
Boxer Indemnity payments, 102, 191–192
Soong, T. V. (Finance Minister): General, 37, 120, 387, 419, 450; request for U. S. aid and advice, and U. S. position, 137–140, 141, 142–143, 165–169, 187
Statements concerning: June 23, appeal to United States and other powers for action in support of Nine-Power Treaties, 102–104, 126; July 5, statement by Inspector Gen-

China—Continued.
Financial situation—Continued.
Effect of seizure—Continued.
Statements concerning—Continued. eral of Customs concerning effect on customs revenue receipts, 129; July 26, announcement by Finance Minister concerning effect on China's financial situation, 186–187; Sept. 3, notification to United States and other foreign powers concerning effect on foreign loan payments, 247–248
Nishihara loans, cited, 153
United States: Chinese appeal under Nine-Power Treaties regarding Manchurian customs seizure, June 23, 102–104, 126; notification by Chinese Government concerning effect of Manchurian customs seizure on foreign loan payments, Sept. 3, 247–248; U. S. aid and advice, Chinese request for, and U. S. position, 137–140, 141, 142–143, 165–169, 187
Foreign powers:
Arms and munitions. See Arms and munitions, supra.
Concessions. See Peiping Legation Quarter; Protection: International Settlement of Kulangsu, and Shanghai International Settlement, infra.
Evacuation. See under Protection, infra.
Extraterritorial rights. See Extraterritorial rights, supra.
France (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers):
Chinese taxation program, attitude concerning, 598, 604
Hai Ho Conservancy Commission in Hopeh Province, position as to proposed reorganization, 671*n*
Hukuang Railway Loan of 1911, efforts to reach an understanding on servicing, 618, 619, 622
International Settlement of Kulangsu, cooperation with other countries in protection of. See Protection: International Settlement of Kulangsu: Cooperation, infra.
Peiping Legation Quarter, position on question of maintaining neutrality in event of further Sino-Japanese hostilities, 561–562, 563, 566, 576–577, 578, 579, 579–580
China—Continued.
Foreign powers—Continued.
France—Continued.
Registration of foreign press in China, position concerning, 666–667
Shipments of arms and munitions through Indo-China, efforts to stop, 580, 581, 582–584, 586–588, 590
Great Britain (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers):
Arms and munitions shipments to China, policy regarding, 581, 585–586, 596
Boxer Indemnity payments, attitude concerning postponement, 609, 612–613
Chinese taxation program, attitude concerning, 598, 601, 607
Hai Ho Conservancy Commission in Hopeh Province, position as to reorganization, 670–671, 671*n*
Hukuang Railway Loan of 1911, efforts to reach agreement with China on servicing, 618, 619, 622
Kulangsu International Settlement, position regarding problems affecting. See Protection: International Settlement of Kulangsu, infra.
Missionaries, kidnapping of Father Sands, 501, 510, 511
Peiping Legation Quarter: Action of Japanese Legation guard toward British official, and Japanese apology, 214–215; position regarding question of maintaining neutrality in event of further Sino-Japanese hostilities, 561–562, 565, 566, 567–568, 568–569, 569–570, 576, 576–577, 578, 579–580
Registration of foreign press in China, position regarding, 665, 666–667
Shanghai International Settlement. See Shanghai International Settlement, infra.
Italy (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers): Boxer Indemnity payments, attitude regarding postponement, 609, 612–613; Peiping Legation Quarter, position regarding question of maintaining neutrality in event of further Sino-Japanese hostilities, 561–562, 565, 566, 569–570, 573, 578, 579–580

China—Continued.
Foreign powers—Continued
Japan (see also Sino-Japanese dispute):
Chinese taxation program, attitude concerning, 598, 601, 604
Hai Ho Conservancy Commission in Hopeh Province, position as to proposed reorganization, 671*n*
International Settlement of Kulangsu, cooperation with other countries in protection of, 497, 499–501, 502–504, 505–509, 511, 511–515
Shanghai International Settlement, position concerning proposed modus vivendi for agreement relative to extra-Settlement roads, 635–637, 642–644, 645–646, 647–648, 652–653
Netherlands, position on proposed reorganization of Hai Ho Conservancy Commission in Hopeh Province, 671*n*
Russia (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers), resumption of diplomatic relations with China, 6, 70–71, 142, 297, 420, 435, 440–441, 446, 457
Spain, position on proposed reorganization of Hai Ho Conservancy Commission in Hopeh Province, 670–671, 671*n*
United States. See under Sino-Japanese dispute; also the following, supra: Arms and munitions, Claims, Extraterritorial rights, Financial situation: United States; and the following, infra: Hai Ho Conservancy Commission, Press restrictions, Protection, Shanghai International Settlement, Taxation, U. S. citizens, U. S. commercial interests, U. S. military and naval forces, infra.
Hai Ho Conservancy Commission in Hopeh Province, proposed reorganization of, 669–670; position of United States and other countries, 670–671
Kidnapping. See under Protection, infra.
Koo, V. K. Wellington, 98, 161, 201, 201–202, 251, 309–310, 364
Kung, H. H., proposed economic mission to United States, 37, 38
Lytton Commission. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: League of Nations.
China—Continued.
Lo Wen-kan, 5–6, 97, 195, 195–196, 196, 210–214, 259, 260, 286–287, 355, 356–358, 387, 413, 419, 449, 451, 458
Peiping. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: North China.
Political situation:
Anti-foreign sentiment, 154, 164, 363, 392, 400, 407
Canton faction, 14, 29, 53, 154, 195, 268, 358, 441–442
Chang Hsueh-liang, resignation as Peiping Pacification Commissioner because of opposition of Wang Ching-wei over "non-resistance" policy, 195, 196, 199–200, 201, 358
Chiang Kai-shek, 14, 37, 38–39, 53, 70, 139, 153, 195, 313, 356, 358, 419, 440, 441–442, 458; statement on necessity for Chinese unity, 441–442
Civil war, 26, 40, 57
Communist activities, 14, 26, 30, 40, 71, 137, 138, 139, 152, 153, 157, 167, 213, 313, 321, 324, 380, 392, 440, 441, 446
Kuomintang, 152, 215
Lo Wen-kan (Foreign Minister), 5–6, 97, 195, 195–196, 196, 210–214, 259, 260, 286–287, 355, 356–358, 387, 413, 419, 449, 451, 458
Nationalist Government, weakness of, 139–140, 220, 231, 321, 324–325; statement by Chiang Kai-shek on necessity for Chinese unity, 441–442
Policy of resistance toward Japan, questions concerning, 56, 195, 196, 199–200, 201, 259–260, 356, 358, 380, 450–451, 457–458, 459
Return of Government from Loyang to Nanking, 357–358, 380
Wang Ching-wei (President of Executive Yuan): General, 29, 70, 97, 98, 153; resignation because of opposition to "non-resistance" policy, 195, 196, 199–200, 201, 358
Postal Service. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Chinese administrative services.
Press restrictions affecting American and other foreign correspondents and newspapers, 654–669
Extraterritorial rights, question of, 656, 657, 658, 661–662, 663–665, 666
Far Eastern Review, denial by Chinese authorities of postal facilities to, 667–668, 668; U. S. position, 668–669

China—Continued.
Press restrictions—Continued.
Isaacs publications, request by Chinese authorities for suppression of, 654, 658, 659–660, 663; U. S. position, 655, 656–657, 657, 658, 659, 660–661, 663
Registration of foreign press, insistence of Chinese postal authorities concerning, 661; position of United States and other countries and modification of Chinese stand, 661–662, 662, 663–667
Searchlight Publishing Company. See Isaacs publications, supra.
Protection of American and other foreign lives and property during communist uprisings and bandit activity, 464–561
American merchant vessels:
Firing upon vessel in Yangtze, 465
Piracy of vessels on Yangtze and kidnapping of crew members by bandits (see also Kidnapping, infra), 464–466; release of certain crew members, 468
American-owned goods in possession of Chinese shops, 448–489, 517
Evacuation of Americans and other foreigners from places of danger: Advice to Americans in danger areas, 464, 480, 488, 490, 521, 537; reports and plans for, 469, 472, 473–474, 475–476, 480, 496, 497, 499–501, 502, 504, 506, 508–509, 513, 533, 551, 555–556
International Settlement of Kulangsu: British negotiations with Chinese Government for rendition of Settlement, U. S. attitude concerning, 526–527; cooperation of United States with other foreign powers in protective measures during communistic advances, 497, 499–501, 502–504, 505–509, 511, 511–515
Kidnapping by Communists and bandits (see also under Missionaries, infra), case of Charles Baker:
Information concerning kidnapping of Baker and demands of bandits, 465–466, 467, 467–468, 469–470, 474, 476, 493, 504–505
Insistence by United States that Chinese Government secure release of Baker, 466, 467, 477, 481–482, 484, 484–485, 489–490, 490–492, 493–495, 496, 498–499, 501, 505
China—Continued.
Protection, etc.—Continued.
Kidnapping—Continued.
Negotiations with bandits:
American flood relief wheat and resources of National Flood Relief Commission, use in securing Baker's release, 483, 484, 495, 496–497, 498–499, 501, 510, 511, 516–517; U. S. attitude, 484–486
Andrew, G. Findlay, successful efforts in securing Baker's release, 495, 496–497, 501, 504–505, 510, 511, 516, 516–517; U. S. expression of appreciation, 518
Chinese Government, efforts to secure release, 481, 482–483, 491–492, 510; U. S. attitude and expression of appreciation, 489–490, 491, 509–510, 518–519
Yangtze Rapid Steamship Co., payment of ransom and bandits' refusal to release Baker, 467, 468, 474, 476, 505
Release of Baker on May 31, and closing of case, 516–517, 530
Military operations in—
Fukien Province: Amoy and Kulangsu International Settlement, 495–496, 499–501, 502–504, 505–509, 511, 511–515; Changchow, 495–496, 497, 502, 507–508, 509; Kienningfu, 537; Tungan, 497, 507–508, 515; Shaowu, 537
Honan Province: General, 521; Kwangchow, 479, 481
Hupeh Province: General, 520; Hankow area (Wuhan), 469, 470–472, 473–474, 476–477, 478, 480; Hwangpei, 464; Shekow, 464
Kiangsi Province: General, 537; Kanchow, 472, 473, 474–475, 475–476, 478, 478–479; Lungnan, 475; Taholi, 475
Shantung Province: Chefoo, 531, 533, 542–543, 555–556; Hwanghsien, 531, 531–532, 532, 533; Laichow, 533; Tengchow, 531–532, 532, 533
Missionaries and mission property (see also Evacuation, supra):
Communist advances threatening missionaries and mission property: Cases of danger, and U. S. efforts to afford protection, 469, 472, 473, 474–475, 475–476, 478, 478–479, 480–481, 482, 488, 502, 519, 531–532; U. S. communica-

China—Continued.
Protection, etc.—Continued.
Missionaries—Continued.
Communist threats—Continued.
tion of advice to missionary organizations, 464, 488, 490, 521, 537
Kidnapping of U. S. and other missionaries by bandits and communists, cases of: Rev. Bert N. Nelson, 470, 486–488, 517–518, 530–531, 538, 550; Father Sands (British), 501, 510, 511; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Vikner, Mrs. Erik Sovik and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Nyhus, 519–521
Murder of Henry Ekvall by Chinese soldiery:
Information concerning murder, 522, 523, 524–525, 527, 550–552
Investigation of crime and punishment of guilty parties, U. S. insistence upon, 522, 522–526, 527–530, 532, 533, 533–537, 537–538, 545, 548, 549, 552–553, 557, 558–560; Chinese apprehension and execution of murderer, 532, 537–538, 540–542, 543–544, 548, 550–553
U. S. claims, representations concerning, 525, 526, 538–540, 545, 546–547, 553, 554–555, 558, 559–560; Chinese attitude, 545–546, 552–553, 554, 556–557, 560–561
Thorburn case, 525, 536, 539–540
U. S. military and naval forces:
Cooperation with other foreign powers in protective measures at—
Amoy (Kulangsu International Settlement), 495–496, 497, 499–501, 502–504, 505–509, 511, 511–515
Hankow area (Wuhan), 470–472, 473–474, 476–477, 478, 480
Dispatch of naval vessels to places of danger, Nanking, 469
General policy and instructions, 503, 506
U. S. representations concerning—
Kidnapping of Americans by bandits and communists: Case of Charles Baker, 466, 477, 481–482, 484, 484–485, 485–486, 486, 489–490, 490–492, 493–495, 496, 498–499, 499, 501, 509–510; Rev. Bert N. Nelson, 486–489, 517–518; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur E. Nyhus, Mrs. Erik Sovik, and Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Vikner, 519–520
Murder of Henry Ekvall, 522–526, 527–530, 533, 533–537, 537–538, 538–540, 543–544, 545, 546–547, 548–549, 552–553, 554–555, 556–557, 558
U. S. lives and property endangered by military operations and bandit and communist activities, 474–475, 477, 478–479, 479, 502, 511, 531–532, 542–543
Salt Revenue Administration. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Chinese administrative services.
Shanghai. See under Sino-Japanese dispute.
Shanghai International Settlement, problems affecting (see also Sino-Japanese dispute: Shanghai: International Settlement), 182–184, 403, 628–654
Attacks on Japanese civilians by Chinese, Japanese representations concerning, 630–632
Court system under agreement of Feb. 17, 1930, operation of: Criticism of court administration by Municipal Council Chairman, 628–629; round-table conference for consideration of special district court and other questions, proposed, 182–184; U. S. and British positions favoring extension of agreement, 634–635, 638–640, 640–641, 651–652, 653–654
Extra-Settlement roads, efforts of interested powers to reach agreement concerning:
Conversation of U. S. Consul General at Shanghai with Chinese official looking toward opening of negotiations, 629–630
Modus vivendi, proposal by Greater Shanghai and the Shanghai Municipal Council:
Information regarding details of proposal, 632–634
Negotiations, 635–638, 640, 641–651, 652–653
Position of—
China, 640, 642, 643–644, 649
Japan, criticism of proposal and insistence on round-table conference, 635–636, 637, 643, 645, 646, 647–648, 652–653

China—Continued.
Shanghai Intern'l Settlement—Con.
Extra-Settlement roads—Con.
Modus vivendi—Continued.
Position of—Continued.
United States and Great Britain, 635, 636, 642–644, 645–646, 648–651
Round-table conference for consideration of extra-Settlement roads and other questions, proposed, 182–184, 635, 637, 638, 645, 646
Man-of-war buoyage, demand of powers for rearrangement of, 403
Shanhaikwan, Japanese military activities at, 8, 30, 164, 411
Soong, T. V. (Finance Minister). See under Financial situation: Effect of seizure of Manchurian customs and salt revenues, supra.
Standard Oil Co., 464–465, 468, 471, 601, 604
Taxation:
British attitude, 598, 601, 607
French attitude, 598, 604
Imposition of taxes considered unfair to American trade, 596–608
Business tax, application to American firms, and U. S. position, 602–603, 604–606, 607–608
Dike surtax and wharfage dues imposed by Hunan authorities: Information concerning, 601–602; status of Standard Oil and other American oil companies, 601, 604; U. S. position, 599–600, 603–604
Foreshore regulations revised July 31, 1931, by Shanghai municipal authorities, U. S. position regarding unilateral revision of existing treaty provisions and instructions concerning compliance with, 596–599, 606–607
Kerosene and gasoline taxes, protests of Socony-Vacuum Corp. against illegal imposition of, 606; U. S. position, 606
Production tax, information concerning, 600, 602
Japanese attitude, 598, 601, 604
Tientsin. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: North China.
Treaties (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute):
Boxer Protocol (1901), cited, 333, 563
Consortium Agreement (1920), 377, 378, 390–391
China—Continued.
Treaties—Continued.
Tariff treaties: Great Britain (1928), 599; United States (1928), 167
Whangpoo Conservancy Agreement of 1912, 597
U. S. citizens (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute; see also Extraterritorial rights, Protection, Press restrictions, Taxation: Imposition, supra):
Chamberlain, Culver B. See Japan: Assault.
Service in Chinese Army, U. S. position regarding, 58
U. S. commercial interests (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute; also Claims and Taxation: Imposition, supra):
Arrow Aircraft and Motors Corporation, 580, 581–584
Far Eastern Review, 667–669, 714
J. P. Morgan & Co., 624–625, 625
Socony-Vacuum Corp., 606
Standard Oil Co., 464–465, 468, 471, 601, 604
Texas Co., 471
Yangtze Rapid Steamship Co., 465, 467, 468, 474, 476, 505
U. S. military and naval forces. See under Sino-Japanese dispute; also under Protection, supra.
Wang Ching-wei. See under Political situation, supra.
Yangtze Rapid Steamship Co., 465, 467, 468, 474, 476, 505
China Foundation for the Promotion of Education and Culture, 620–621
Chinese Eastern Railway. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria.
Claims. See under China.
Commission of Inquiry to China and Japan. See Sino-Japanese dispute: League of Nations: Lytton Commission.
Commissions. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: League of Nations.
Communists (see also Political situation: Communist activities, and Protection of American and other foreign lives, under China): Japan, 235, 239, 360, 361, 675–676, 683; Manchuria, 135
Conferences. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Shanghai.
Courts. See China: Extraterritorial rights.
Customs. See China: Financial questions: Effect of seizure of Manchurian customs and salt revenues; and under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Chinese administrative services.

Dairen. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Chinese administrative services: Customs Administration.
Depression, world economic, 213, 336
Disarmament Conference:
Accomplishments, French opinion regarding, 188
Far Eastern situation, relationship with disarmament problems, 239, 292–293, 318
Germany: Nonattendance at meeting of Disarmament Bureau, 249; request for arms equality with France, 228, 234–235, 249–250, 401
Lytton report, possible effect on disarmament questions, 234
Naval questions, 343
Stimson, Henry L.: Attendance, 2; comments, 19–20
Discrimination against American trade. See China: Taxation: Imposition of taxes.

Economic Conference, World, 336
Ekvall, Henry, murder of. See China: Protection: Murder of Henry Ekvall.
Evacuation. See under China: Protection.
Extraterritorial rights. See under China.

Far Eastern crisis. See Sino-Japanese dispute.
Far Eastern Review (see also under China: Press restrictions), subsidization by Japan, 714
Fascism in Japan, 161, 683, 687, 689–690, 722–723
Flood Relief Commission, National. See National Flood Relief Commission.
France (see also under China: Foreign powers; and under Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers), request by Germany for arms equality, 228, 234–235, 249–250, 401
Fushun massacre. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Action by Japanese armed forces: Atrocities.

Germany (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers):
Disarmament Conference: Nonattendance at meeting of Disarmament Bureau, 249; request for arms equality with France, 228, 234–235, 249–250, 401
League of Nations, threat to withdraw from, 244
Great Britain. See under China: Foreign powers; and under Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers.

Hoover, Herbert (President), nonrecognition policy, cited, 76, 198–199
Hawaii, possibility of Japanese attack on, 197, 710–711

Immigration Act of 1924, exclusion clause, cited, 462, 708, 715
Ireland, consultations with United States regarding Manchurian situation, 347
Italy. See under China: Foreign powers; and under Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers.

Japan (see also Sino-Japanese dispute and under China: Foreign powers), 1–463 passim, 598, 601, 604, 672–746
Anti-American attitude. See under War psychology, infra.
Araki, Lt. Gen. Sadao, 4, 62, 75, 76, 93, 129, 144, 147, 150, 151–152, 156, 162, 673, 682, 693, 695, 696, 697–698, 726
Arms and munitions, 299, 455
Assassination of Premier Inukai and assaults on other conservative leaders by terrorists. See under Parliamentary government, infra.
Assault upon Culver B. Chamberlain, American Consul at Harbin, 728–740
Conflicting reports of assault, 728–729, 730–731, 731–732, 732–733, 734–735, 736
Insistence by United States on adequate punishment for offenders, 729, 733–734; Japanese attitude, 729, 733, 739
Japanese apologies and information concerning punishment of offenders, 729–730, 731, 732, 735–736, 736–737, 739, 740; U. S. attitude, 737–738
Black Dragon Society, 682, 721
Blood Brotherhood Society, 682, 683, 687
Communism, 235, 239, 360, 361, 675–676, 683
Death Band, 676–677, 679
Economic and financial situation (see also Loans, infra; Parliamentary government: Economic and social conditions, infra), 78, 93, 206, 240, 265, 299, 323, 327, 344, 349, 372, 373, 408, 459
Far Eastern Review, subsidization by Japanese Government, 714
Fascism, 161, 683, 687, 689–690, 722–723
Inukai, Premier. See Parliamentary government: Assassination, infra.
Japan Advertiser, American-owned newspaper, attacks against, 677–678, 680

Japan—Continued.
Loans:
French loan, Japanese desire for, 70, 234, 265–266, 295–296, 359–360
"Manchoukuo," proposed loan to, 337; U. S.–French discussions regarding possible violation of China Banking Consortium, 377–378, 390–391
"Manchoukuo." See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria.
Military domination in government. See under Parliamentary government, infra.
Minseito, 673, 674, 693, 694–695, 696, 698
Parliamentary government, weakening of:
Assassination of Premier Inukai and assaults on other conservative leaders by terrorists: Information concerning, 32, 672–673, 676–677, 678, 680–681, 681–682, 684–688, 720–722; public sentiment and attitude of the military and press, 673, 683, 685, 686, 687–688, 697–698, 722–724, 726; punishment of terrorists, 679, 682, 726
Black Dragon Society, 682, 721
Blood Brotherhood Society, 682, 683, 687
Communism, 235, 239, 360, 361, 675–676, 683
Death Band, 676–677, 679
Economic and social conditions affecting governmental stability, analysis of, 675, 688, 696, 698–699, 724–725
Fascism, 161, 683, 687, 689–690, 722–723
Liberal element, 177, 178
Military domination in Government, steps leading toward:
Assassinations and outbreaks of terrorism, possible connection of Army with, 678, 682, 684, 687, 688, 722
Friction within military groups, 672–673, 674–675
General, 152, 188–189, 196, 220, 230, 235, 239, 240, 242, 249–250, 289, 357, 360, 375, 408
Patriotism and other important factors in military psychology, 674, 675, 685, 688–689, 697–698, 709, 722
Strategy of military groups in campaign to gain control (see also War psychology, infra):
Dictation of terms to politicians, 688–689, 690
Japan—Continued.
Parliamentary government—Con.
Military domination—Continued.
Strategy of military groups—Con.
Manchurian incident (see also Action by Japanese armed forces and "Manchoukuo" under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria), 672, 674, 704–705, 713, 716, 718
Minseito, 673, 674, 693, 694–695, 696, 698
Opposition and terrorist groups, information concerning (see also Military domination, supra): Black Dragon Society, 682, 721; Blood Brotherhood Society, 682, 683, 687; Communists, 235, 239, 360, 361, 675–676, 683; death band, 676–677, 679; Fascists, 161, 683, 687, 689–690, 722–723; Shiunso, the, 680, 699–700
Résumé of situation, 682, 684–691, 697–699
Saito Cabinet, formation of: Analysis of Saito appointments and information concerning cabinet members, 32, 42, 43, 69, 145, 691–695; attitude of the military, 692, 693; problems confronting the Cabinet, 695–696; Uchida, Count Yasuya, appointment as Foreign Minister, 55, 75, 81, 113, 146
Seiyukai, 673, 674, 679, 684, 686, 689, 693, 694, 695, 696, 698
Terrorists. See Assassination of Premier and Opposition and terrorist groups, supra.
Philippine jurisdictional waters, control of activities of Japanese vessels in, 740–746
Information concerning questionable activity of vessels, 740–742
Measures of control enacted by Taiwan Government, 742–743; Philippine objections based on definition of boundaries, and U. S. efforts to effect agreement, 743–746
Political situation. See Parliamentary Government, supra, and War psychology, infra.
Propaganda, use of. See under War psychology, infra.
Recognition of "Manchoukuo." See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: "Manchoukuo."
Russia (see also Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers: Russia: Manchuria): Fisheries treaty, conclusion of, 219; nonaggression treaty, proposed, 219, 315, 409, 440

646232—48——55

Japan—Continued.
Saito, Admiral Viscount Makato (see also Parliamentary government: Saito Cabinet, supra), 691, 692, 720
Seiyukai Party, 673, 674, 695, 696, 698
Shidehara, Baron Kijuro, 673, 676, 677, 680, 701
Shiratori, Toshio, 677, 700–702, 710, 718
Shiunso, the, 680, 699–700
Terrorists. See Parliamentary government: Assassination of Premier and Opposition and terrorist groups, supra.
Toyama, Mitsuru, 682, 721–722, 726
Treaties (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute):
Japan-Korea Protocol (1904), cited, 269
Japan – "Manchoukuo" Protocol, Sept. 15, 204, 218, 221–222, 230, 249, 253–254, 256–257, 262, 269–270; text, 253–254
Russia: Conclusion of fisheries treaty with, 218–219; Portsmouth Treaty (1905), cited, 707
U. S.–Japanese Treaty of Commerce and Navigation (1911), cited, 462
Uchida, Count Yasuya: Appointment as Foreign Minister, 55, 75, 81, 113, 146; Lytton Commission, interviews with, 150, 156, 162–165, 169, 170, 175–178, 181, 191, 193, 216–217; statements and speeches, 191, 206, 207, 208, 210–211, 212, 215–217
War psychology, promotion by the Military:
Anti-American attitude, development of: Exclusion clause of U. S. Immigration Act of 1924, cited, 462, 708, 715; general, 289, 350, 351, 352, 372–373; Japan Advertiser (American), attacks on, 677–678, 680; National City Bank of New York, press attacks on, 241, 718; press campaign, 240–241, 302, 345, 718, 726–727; propaganda, use of, 705–715; résumé of events leading to, 707–710, 714–716; U. S. Embassy officials, relations with Japanese Foreign Office, 179; U. S. fleet, Japanese attitude regarding position in Pacific waters, 197–198, 289, 302, 325–326, 345, 719; U. S.-Japanese tension, suggestion for alleviation, 679–680, 681, 720, 727–728; U. S. war with Japan, possibility of, 37, 38, 40, 197–198, 220–221, 240, 318, 351, 372–373, 702–703, 706, 710–711, 715, 718
Military strength, analysis of, 703, 703–705, 713, 716
Propaganda (see also under Anti-American attitude, supra): Direction against China and Russia, 705, 712–713; effectiveness of, 702–703, 706–707, 709, 713–714
Résumé and analysis of situation, 702–720
Jehol. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Action by Japanese armed forces.
Jurisdictional waters. See Japan: Philippine jurisdictional waters.

Kellogg-Briand Pact. See under Sino-Japanese dispute.
Kidnapping. See under China: Protection.
Koo, V. K. Wellington, 98, 161, 201, 201–202, 251, 309–310, 364
Kulangsu International Settlement. See China: Protection: International Settlement of Kulangsu.
Kung, H. H., proposed economic mission to United States, 37, 38
Kuomintang, 152, 215

League of Nations (see also under Sino-Japanese dispute), threats of withdrawal by—
Germany, 244
Italy, 244, 258–259
Japan, 3–5, 182, 217, 239, 258, 317, 319, 325, 332, 351, 373, 430, 439, 454–455, 716
Loans. See China: Claims: Hukuang Railway Loan; Japan: Loans; Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: "Manchoukuo": Loans.
Lo Wen-kan, Foreign Minister of China, 5–6, 97, 195, 195–196, 196, 210–214, 259, 260, 286–287, 355, 356–358, 387, 413, 419, 449, 451, 458
Lytton Commission. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: League of Nations.

MacArthur, Gen. Douglas, visit to Europe, 318
Manchuria. See under Sino-Japanese dispute.
"Manchoukuo." See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria.
Mandated islands in Pacific, 5, 321

McCoy, Gen. Frank R. (see also Sino-Japanese dispute: League of Nations: Lytton Commission: United States: Representation), suggestion for appointment as U. S. representative on League conciliation body, 369, 383–384, 422
Merchant vessels. See China: Protection: American merchant vessels.
Missionaries (see also under China: Protection): American and British missionaries in Manchuria, 266, 270–271, 341; Lytton Commission, interviews with, 157
Munitions. See Arms and munitions under China and Sino-Japanese dispute.
Murder of Henry Ekvall. See under China: Protection.

Nakamura case, cited, 154, 157
Nanking indemnity payments, U. S. representations against Chinese default in, 621, 622
National City Bank of New York: Interests in Manchuria, 28, 54; Japanese press attacks on, 241, 718
National Flood Relief Commission, successful negotiations to obtain release of Charles Baker from Chinese bandits, 483, 484, 492, 495, 496–497, 498–499, 501, 510, 511, 516–517; U. S. attitude, 484–486
Netherlands, position regarding proposed reorganization of Hai Ho Conservancy Commission in Hopeh Province, 671*n*
Neutrality doctrine, 231
Nine-Power Treaties. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Proposals and suggestions.
Open-door principle in Manchuria:
  Japanese occupation: Effects of, 151, 208; U. S. businessmen, attitude of, 151, 161
  Maintenance of, 34, 59, 93, 719
  "Manchoukuo": Announcement of nonintention of observing except in cases of nations granting recognition of new regime, 274; intention to observe, 221, 249

Peiping. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: North China.
Philippines:
  Discussion between U. S. Secretary of State and Japanese Ambassador, 681
  Japanese attack on, possibility of, 197, 710–711
  Philippine jurisdictional waters, control of activities of Japanese vessels. See under Japan.
Philippines—Continued.
  Suspension of parcel post service and money order business to and from Manchuria, 243, 243*n*
Piracy. See under China: Protection: American merchant vessels.
Poland: Attitude in event of Russo-Japanese war, question of, 318; recognition of "Manchoukuo," question of, 267
Portsmouth Treaty, Japan–Russia (1905), cited, 707
Press restrictions. See under China.
Property. See Protection of American and other foreign lives and property, under China, and under Sino-Japanese dispute.
Protection of American and other foreign lives and property. See under Sino-Japanese dispute.
Pu-yi (Hsuan-tung), 158, 159, 212, 215, 256–257, 263, 313, 357, 387, 437, 719

Radio Corporation of America, question of contract with "Manchoukuo," 287–288
Rea, George Bronson:
  Activities and services on behalf of "Manchoukuo": Chinese protest, 205; Far Eastern Review, Chinese press restrictions against, and U. S. protests, 667–669
  Propagandist for Japan, 152, 714
Recognition. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: "Manchoukuo."
Reed, Senator David A., 235, 239, 240, 244–245, 265, 267, 272
Russia. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers.

Saito, Admiral Viscount Makato (see also Japan: Parliamentary government: Saito Cabinet), 691, 692, 720
Sanctions, proposals for, 328, 351, 408, 422, 454, 455
Searchlight Publishing Co. See China: Press restrictions: Isaacs publications.
Shanghai. See under Sino-Japanese dispute.
Shanghai International Settlement. See under China; see also Sino-Japanese dispute: Shanghai: International Settlement.
Shidehara, Baron Kijuro, 673, 676, 677, 680, 701
Shiratori, Toshio, 677, 700–702, 710, 718
Simon, Sir John, speech before League of Nations Assembly on Sino-Japanese question, 400, 403–404, 405, 405–406, 411–413, 417, 417–418, 420, 420–422, 443–444
Sino-British tariff treaty (1928), 599

Sino-Japanese dispute, 1–463, 464–746 passim
Address by Chinese Foreign Minister on Chinese position, Aug. 29, 210–214
Arms and munitions:
China: Chinese desire to obtain from United States, 37, 38, 57–58; possibility of obtaining from Europe via land route upon resumption of diplomatic relations with Russia, 70; U. S. export restrictions on shipment to China, 57
Japan: Military supplies, efforts to obtain from France, 299; munitions embargo against Japan by states members of League, proposed, 455
Boycotts:
Anti-American boycott by China in 1905, U. S. position and alleged use of naval forces in connection with, Japanese citation of, 363
Anti-Japanese: Chinese, 6, 10, 152, 209–210, 327, 359, 363, 392, 394, 407, 450, 459; economic, threat of, Japanese attitude, 78; munitions embargo by states members of League, proposed, 455; Shanghai, recurrence of, and other Sino-Japanese disturbances, 209–210, 222–223
Commission of Inquiry to China and Japan. See League of Nations: Lytton Commission, infra.
Correspondence. See under League of Nations and United States, infra.
Foreign powers, efforts to preserve peace:
Belgium, consultations with United States, 231–232
Canada, consultations with United States, 388–390, 404–405, 418
France:
Chinese Eastern Railway, interest of French investors in, 67–68, 71, 360
Far Eastern situation, attitude regarding, 234, 239–240, 295–296, 298–299, 318, 359–361, 399–400
Japan (see also "Manchoukuo," infra): Desire for loan, 70, 234, 265–266, 295–296, 359–360; efforts to obtain military supplies, 299; secret alliance, rumors of, 359–360; trade treaty concerning Indo-China, conclusion of, 218
"Manchoukuo":
Dairen customs seizure, representations to Japan concerning, 124
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Foreign powers, efforts to preserve peace—Continued.
France—Continued.
"Manchoukuo"—Continued.
Loan from French banking concern, efforts to obtain, 67–69, 71–72, 360
Recognition by Japan, French attitude, 92, 129, 207, 218, 361, 400; representations to Japan, 129
U. S.–French consultations regarding possible violation of China Banking Consortium by proposed Japanese loan to "Manchoukuo," 377–378, 390–391
United States, consultations with (see also "Manchoukuo": U. S.–French consultations, supra; also League of Nations: Lytton Commission: Report: Foreign powers: Discussions; Shanghai: Round-table conference, infra), 67–69, 188–189, 234–235, 249–250, 265–266, 298–299, 359–361, 403
Germany: Attitude, 235, 362, 401; "Manchoukuo" officials, relations with, 271; Nine-Power Treaty, nonratification of, 324, 375–376; political situation, effect of, 318, 319; United States, consultations with, 375–376
Great Britain:
Far Eastern situation, British policy regarding Manchuria, 206–209, 340, 318–319, 325
Japan (see also Manchuria, infra): Anglo-Japanese Alliance, cited, 319; Japanese Legation Guard at Peiping, action toward British officials and Japanese apology, 214–215; war, possibility of, 198
Manchuria:
Chinese administrative services, seizure of: Representations to Japan concerning Customs Administration at Dairen, 115–116, 117, 118, 149; U. S.–British consultations regarding preservation of integrity of, 21, 46, 47, 63, 64, 66, 74–75, 82–83, 108–110, 110–112, 115–116, 137, 149
"Manchoukuo":
British relations with "Manchoukuo" officials, 271, 279, 421

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Foreign powers, efforts to preserve peace—Continued.
Great Britain—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
"Manchoukuo"—Continued.
Recognition by Japan, attitude of Great Britain, 82–83, 128, 132–133, 149, 172, 174, 206–209, 218, 249, 404, 421; representations to Japan, 128, 132–133, 149, 174
Missions and missionaries in, 271
Military and naval forces at Shanghai, 1, 16, 20
Protection of lives and property of British citizens, 238, 244, 298
United States, consultations with (see also Manchuria: Chinese administrative services: U. S.–British consultations, supra; also League of Nations: Lytton Commission: Report: Foreign powers: Discussions; Shanghai; Round-table conference, infra), 19–21, 44, 245, 250–253
Ireland, consultations with United States, 347
Italy:
League of Nations, threats to withdraw from, 244, 258–259
Manchuria: Attitude of Italy on questions concerning, 337–338; Dairen customs seizure, representations to Japan, 126–127; "Manchoukuo," recognition by Japan, attitude regarding, 174
Military forces at Shanghai, 16
United States, consultations with. See League of Nations: Lytton Commission: Report: Foreign powers: Discussions, infra; Shanghai: Round-table conference, infra.
Russia:
China, resumption of diplomatic relations with, 6, 70–71, 142, 297, 420, 435, 440–441, 446, 457
Economic situation, 116
Far East, interest in, 231, 297
Japan (see also Manchuria, infra): Fisheries treaty, conclusion of, 218–219; nonaggression treaty, proposed, 219, 315, 409, 440
League of Nations:
Lytton Commission, Japanese noncooperation with, 7–8, 30–31

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Foreign powers, efforts to preserve peace—Continued.
Russia—Continued.
League of Nations—Continued.
Participation in conciliation body, question of. See League: Deliberations: Conciliation proposals: Nonmember states, infra.
Manchuria: Cooperation between Japan and Russia in refusing supplies to Chinese bands, 61; hostilities between Japan and Russia, possibility of, 17, 23, 42, 52, 62, 160, 297, 318, 350, 352, 460–461, 704, 705; protection of lives and property, 64; recognition of "Manchoukuo," possibility of, 6, 64, 159, 218–219, 219, 267, 297, 315, 440; Su Ping-wen, retreat into Soviet territory, and Soviet rejection of Japanese demands for surrender of, 346, 354, 367, 377, 379–380, 398, 410–411, 434–435
Turkish Foreign Minister, visit to Russia, observations, 17
U. S. recognition, desire for, 42, 297, 436–437, 440, 446
Kellogg-Briand Pact:
Allusions to, 139, 217, 230, 240, 263, 323, 385, 433, 719
Basis for proposals for settlement of dispute, suggestion for, 168, 202, 209, 214, 239–240, 272, 295, 300, 310, 348, 422, 423, 426, 451
Speeches by Secretary Stimson referring to: Aug. 8, cited, 188, 198–199; Oct. 26, cited, 314–315
Violation by Japanese action in Manchuria, charges of, and Japanese position, 158, 191, 211, 213, 264–265, 359, 363, 380, 392
League of Nations:
Commissions:
Commission of Inquiry to China and Japan. See Lytton Commission, infra.
International Commission to settle Sino-Japanese controversy, appointment by League of Nations, reports of plan for, 355–356, 357
Correspondence:
China and Japan–League:
June 23, Chinese appeal regarding Japanese plans for recognition of "Manchoukuo," 104, 107, 127; text, 104

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
League of Nations—Continued.
Correspondence—Continued.
China and Japan–League—Con.
June 24, League notification to China and Japan of necessity for extension of time limit for consideration of Lytton Report, and reminder of engagements not to aggravate situation, 107–108
Sept. 14, Japanese request for delay in consideration of Lytton Report by the Council, 246
Sept. 26, Chinese request for convocation of Assembly Committee of Nineteen to consider questions of extension of time limit for consideration of Lytton Report and steps to prevent aggravation of situation by Japan, 279, 281–282
Nov. 29, Chinese request for fixing of definite period for completion of Assembly report, 379
Russia–League, Apr. 20, League request for furnishing of information to Lytton Commission by Soviet officials in Manchuria, and Russian refusal, texts, 7–8
United States–League, June 15, League request for information and advice concerning possible Japanese recognition of "Manchoukuo," 79, 83–84, 92; text, 79
Covenant (see also Deliberations, infra): Allusions to, 139, 263, 400; basis for proposals for settlement of dispute, 168, 202, 214, 295, 300, 310, 348, 422, 423, 426, 451; violation by Japanese actions in Manchuria, charges of, and Japanese position, 158, 191, 213, 264–265, 329, 363, 380, 392, 454
Deliberations under art. 15 of the Covenant for settlement of dispute in accordance with findings of Lytton Report:
Assembly (see also Conciliation proposals, infra):
Discussions, general, 391–393, 393–395, 398–402, 403–404, 406–410
Endorsement by Committee of Nineteen of Council's expression of regret at Japanese recognition of "Manchoukuo," 281–282
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
League of Nations—Continued.
Deliberations—Continued.
Assembly—Continued.
Extension of time limit for report of Lytton Commission: Discussion, 107–108; July 1 resolution, text, 127; request by China for convocation of Committee of Nineteen to fix duration of extension period, 279, 281–282, 379
Four-power and two-power resolutions of Dec. 9, referring question to Committee of Nineteen: Discussions, 398–399, 402, 409–410; Japanese objections, 402; texts, draft, 398–399
Chaco dispute: Declaration of neutral nations, Aug. 3, parallel with nonrecognition principle, 314, 401; relationship to Sino-Japanese dispute, feeling of League officials concerning, 321–322, 401
China, desire for U. S. action to prevent League delay, 361–362
Conciliation proposals by Assembly Committee of Nineteen:
Agreement for adjournment, Dec. 20, 444–445, 447–449, 452; text, 444–445
Discussions, 381–383, 414–415, 422–434, 436, 437–439, 444–445, 447–449, 451–457; U. S. views, 415–417, 424–429, 436
Nonmember states (Russia and United States), question of participation in conciliation body: Discussions, 322, 362, 368–369, 382, 383–384, 385–386, 389, 394, 398–399, 400, 402, 403, 404, 406, 407, 413–414, 415–417, 418, 419–420, 420, 423–424, 427, 428–429, 437–438, 438, 440, 448; suggestion of Gen. McCoy as U. S. representative, 369, 383–384, 422; U. S. views, 368–369, 383–384, 385–386, 404, 406, 413–414, 415–417, 418, 419–420, 420, 423–424, 428–429, 437–438, 438, 448, 449
Statement of Reasons and Resolutions Nos. 1 and 2, draft texts, 430–433
Council:
Discussions, 246, 275–277, 302, 309, 322, 346, 354, 358–359, 362–365, 367, 370–372

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
League of Nations—Continued.
Deliberations—Continued.
Council—Continued.
Japanese request for delay in consideration of Lytton Report, 244, 246, 257–258, 258, 260–261, 265, 267–268, 273, 275–277, 309, 320; Chinese attitude, 257–258, 260–261, 267–268, 320
Recognition of "Manchoukuo" by Japan, expression of regret by Council President regarding, Sept. 24, 275–276; endorsement of President's statement by Assembly Committee of Nineteen, Oct. 1, 281–282
Reference of dispute to Assembly, Nov. 28, 371
Efforts of "Manchoukuo" authorities to influence League deliberations, 374, 395
Japan: Efforts to influence League deliberations, 715, 716, 727; reservations regarding application of art. 15 to the dispute, 9, 52, 217, 371; threats of withdrawal, 3–5, 182, 217, 239, 258, 317, 319, 325, 332, 351, 373, 430, 439, 454–455, 716
Nonrecognition of "Manchoukuo":
Expression of regret by Council President regarding Japanese recognition of "Manchoukuo," Sept. 24, 275–276; endorsement of Council President's statement by Assembly Committee of Nineteen, Oct. 1, 281–282
Failure of League to support nonrecognition policy, U. S. views and consultations concerning, 83–84, 92, 122–123, 228, 293, 303, 331–332, 337, 373–374, 376, 382–383, 384–385, 386, 388, 394, 403–404, 405–406, 415–417, 420, 421–422, 424–429, 430, 432, 439, 455
Russia, question of participation in conciliation body. See Conciliation proposals: Nonmember states, supra.
United States. See United States: Cooperation with League of Nations, infra.
Lytton Commission (Commission of Inquiry concerning Manchuria):
Arrangements, itinerary, etc., 12, 29, 30, 49, 65, 98–99, 169, 219, 229
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
League of Nations—Continued.
Lytton Commission—Continued.
Assembly resolution of thanks for work of Commission, draft text, 433
Dissolving of, 371–372, 413
Investigations:
China, 97–98, 153–154, 155, 156–157, 164–165
Japan: Cooperation of Government, 52; interviews with Foreign Minister Uchida, 150, 156, 162–165, 169, 170, 175–178, 181, 191, 193, 216–217; press, attitude, 156; public opinion, 76–78
Manchuria:
General, 30–31, 53, 73, 151–153, 154–155, 155–156, 157–161, 359
Memorandum on suggested solutions of Manchurian question prepared for Gen. McCoy by American Consul General at Harbin, 33–35; by American Consul General at Mukden, 58–61
Russia, noncooperation with Commission, 7–8, 30–31
Salt Administration question, proposal for reference to Commission, 47
Report:
China: Recommendations concerning, 329–330, 331, 336, 393, 409; statement by Foreign Minister, Oct. 3, text, 286–287
Data regarding completion, publication arrangements, etc., 9, 180–182, 229, 235, 265, 273, 276–277; U. S. press release, 285–286
Foreign powers:
Discussions of United States with Great Britain, France, and Italy, regarding steps to be taken to give effect to Report, 206–209, 228, 234–235, 239–240, 244–245, 265, 267, 296–297, 300–301, 304–305, 315–317, 326–333, 337, 343
Policy of refraining from action pending completion of report, 47, 112, 260; advice to China to await report, 54, 139, 142, 168, 219, 229, 233, 260, 274

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
League of Nations—Continued.
Lytton Commission—Continued.
Report—Continued.
Japan:
Findings as to false premises of Japanese action in Manchuria, 150, 157, 160, 182, 214, 219, 229, 242, 287, 359, 367, 394, 398
Public reaction to report, 717
Recognition of "Manchoukuo" by Japan: Effect on conclusions of Report, 392; question of filing of an interim report in view of proposed Japanese action, 176–177
League action on. See Deliberations, supra.
"Manchoukuo," protest regarding failure of report to take cognizance of independence of, 291–292
United States (see also Foreign powers: Discussions, supra): Press release on data concerning, 285–286; request for correction of error of fact respecting United States, 301, 303–304; views regarding content and form, 99, 107, 200–201
Status with regard to League deliberations, 302, 364–365, 367, 370, 371–372; Japanese objections to competence of Commission, 364, 365, 367, 370, 371
United States (see also Report: United States, supra), representation on Commission by Gen. Frank R. McCoy:
Appointment as U. S. representative on Lytton Commission, 228
Congratulatory message from Secretary Stimson, 287, 289
Conversations with American diplomatic and consular officers in China and Japan, 149–165, 219–221
Departure from Europe, 413
Independent status as investigator, U. S. explanation to Japanese Ambassador concerning, 197
Memorandum on suggested solutions of Manchurian question prepared for Gen. McCoy by American Consul General at Harbin, 33–35; by American Consul General at Mukden, 58–61
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
League of Nations—Continued.
Lytton Commission—Continued.
United States—Continued.
Presence at Geneva for League discussions, question of, 202, 203, 272–273, 277, 288–289, 302, 374–375
Resolutions:
Sept. 30, 1931, cited, 104, 107, 282, 392, 407
Dec. 10, 1931, cited, 101, 104, 107, 112, 262–263, 264, 282, 286, 299, 392, 400, 407, 444
Feb. 16, cited, 263
Feb. 29, cited, 14, 51
Mar. 11, cited, 263, 271, 272, 293, 314, 347, 348, 349, 407, 421, 422, 424, 425, 430, 432
Apr. 30, cited, 3, 52
July 1, 127, 282; text, 127
Dec. 9, 398–399, 402, 409–410; draft text, 398–399
Dec. 15, Statement of Reasons and draft Resolutions Nos. 1 and 2, texts, 430–433
Sanctions, proposals for, 328, 351, 408, 422, 454, 455
Shanghai, negotiations for cessation of hostilities, 52
Withdrawal of diplomatic representatives of League members from Tokyo, proposal for, 455
Withdrawal of Japan from League, threats of, 3–5, 182, 217, 239, 258, 317, 319, 325, 332, 351, 373, 430, 439, 454–455, 716
Manchuria:
Action by Japanese armed forces against Chinese bandits and guerrilla bands:
Analogy between Japanese action and British action in China in 1927, Japanese claims of, 392, 407, 408; U. S. troops in Nicaragua, 408
Atrocities by Japanese troops against Chinese civilians:
General, 338–341, 366, 380–381, 396–397, 410
Fushun massacre: Japanese note of Nov. 26 denying reports of, cited, 396; protest by Chinese Government to Japanese Minister, Dec. 6, 395–396; reports of, 339–340, 365–366, 395–396, 435–436
Chinese anti-"Manchoukuo" troops and volunteers:
Assistance of Chinese Government, 449, 450
Bribery and corruption of leaders, Japanese attempts at, 367, 397

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
Action by Japanese armed forces—Continued.
Chinese anti-"Manchoukuo" troops—Continued.
Chang Hsueh-liang, Japanese opposition to as supporter of volunteers, 77, 139, 164, 180, 194, 200, 215, 251, 281, 291, 302, 307, 312-313, 333-334, 375, 447
General, 15, 22-23, 31, 51, 52, 54, 61, 64, 122, 135, 139, 141, 159, 164, 174, 190, 194, 204, 205, 243-244, 266, 288, 298, 299, 307, 312, 333, 366-367, 398, 449, 450
Ma Shan-chan: Death, false report of, 192, 266*n*; efforts of Lytton Commission to interview, 30-31, 161; opposition to Japanese advance into Heilungkiang, 1, 15-16, 24, 29, 30, 31, 54, 161, 266-267, 288, 346, 367, 398
Su Ping-wen, retreat into Soviet territory and Soviet rejection of Japanese demands for surrender of, 346, 354, 367, 377, 379-380, 398, 410-411, 434-435
Chinese Eastern Railway, bandit activities against and Japanese efforts to combat, 1, 15, 54, 61-62, 122, 204, 243, 246, 250, 257, 266, 266-267, 280, 298, 312, 346, 383, 393; warning to U. S. citizens of danger of travel on, 244
Jehol, extension of Japanese military influence to, 164, 171, 172-174, 174, 178-179, 180, 182, 185, 186, 194, 204, 205-206, 215, 232, 251, 261, 268, 312-313, 334, 381, 395, 446-447, 450, 458-459, 462-463
Kirin Province, insurgents in, 1, 15, 28-29, 54, 61-62, 64, 122, 135, 141, 204, 298, 346-347, 354, 388
Manchouli, revolt of Chinese railway guards at, 280, 388
Mukden, bandit attacks on, 210, 221, 238
Nakamura case, cited, 154, 157
Outer Mongolia, 34-35, 459-460
Troops:
Japanese: Area of operations, Japanese official pronouncements concerning, 61-62, 64; number, 55, 62, 125, 159-160, 257, 266-267, 305-306

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
Action, etc.—Continued
Troops—Continued.
"Manchoukuo" police, 159, 210, 243
Boundaries, question of, 164
Chinese administrative services, Japanese seizure of:
Customs Administration:
Assumption of control and seizure of revenues by "Manchoukuo," with assistance of Japanese authorities:
Aigun, 67
Antung, 66-67, 95, 96, 97, 100, 102, 113, 120, 130, 134, 135-136, 140, 141, 223, 227, 274; U. S. inquiries regarding intimidation by Japanese authorities of Robert M. Talbot, Commissioner of Customs, an American citizen, 130, 135-136, 223, 227
Appointment by "Manchoukuo" of an inspector general of customs for Manchuria, proposed, 66, 75
Dairen. See Dairen, infra.
Declaration by "Manchoukuo" government of intention to take over Manchurian customs: June 18, 97, 104-106; June 27, 120
General, 74-75, 79-80, 97, 98, 136-137, 137, 140, 142, 263
Harbin, 66-67, 95, 96, 102, 116, 122, 125, 128, 134, 135, 141, 274
Japanese advisers, resignation and reemployment as "Manchoukuo" employees, 120, 126
Lungchingtsun, 67, 140, 274
Manchouli, 124, 128, 133-134, 140
Newchwang, 66-67, 95, 96, 100, 102, 113, 120, 123, 140, 148-149, 187
Staffs, intimidation of, 116, 122, 124, 125, 128, 130, 133-134, 135-136, 140-141, 223, 227; U. S. inquiries regarding intimidation by Japanese authorities of Antung Commissioner of Customs, Robert M. Talbot, an American citizen, 130, 135-136, 223, 227

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
Chinese administrative services, Japanese seizure of—Con.
Customs Administration—Con.
Dairen:
Establishment of new customs at Kwantung border by "Manchoukuo" government, 112–113, 118, 120, 121, 275
Recognition of "Manchoukuo" by Japan, effect of Dairen customs situation on, 98, 112
Refusal of Japanese Commissioner of Customs at Dairen to remit customs collections to Shanghai, and subsequent dismissal, 112–113, 114, 115, 117–118, 120, 121, 123–124, 124, 140, 171; Japanese protests, 112, 117–118, 121
Representations by foreign powers: France, 124; Great Britain, 115–116, 117, 118, 149; Italy, 126–127; United States, 118–119, 124, 130
Stoppage of customs revenue remittances to Shanghai by "Manchoukuo" authorities, 79, 80, 83, 93, 95–96, 97, 98, 100, 102, 105–106, 171, 187, 191–192, 274
Proposal by Japan for compromise arrangement between China and "Manchoukuo" for preservation of integrity of Customs Administration, discussions, 94–95, 100, 106, 110–111, 112, 113–114, 116, 119–120, 121–122, 130, 135, 137–138, 142
Representations (see also under Dairen, supra; also U. S.–British consultations, infra), U. S., 74–75, 100–101, 172
Effect of seizure of Manchurian customs and salt revenues on Chinese financial situation. See under China: Financial situation.
Foreign and domestic loan service:
Boxer Indemnity payments: Effect on, 102; Japanese portion, release of, 191–192
"Manchoukuo," arrangements for payment of, 95, 105, 106, 121, 184–185, 246–247
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
Chinese administrative services, Japanese seizure of—Con.
Foreign and domestic loan service—Continued.
Service of, effect of seizure of customs and salt revenues on Chinese ability to maintain, 102, 103, 119–120, 129, 137, 138, 186–187, 247–248
"Manchoukuo," declarations concerning—
Intention to take over Manchurian customs: June 18, 97, 104–106; June 27, 120
Treatment of China as an alien nation in matters of customs, tariff, commerce, and navigation, 248; Chinese retaliatory measures, 273–275
Postal Service: Application for membership in Postal Union by "Manchoukuo," 125; interference with, 263; U. S.–British consultations regarding preservation of integrity of Chinese administrative services, inclusion in, 46, 63, 66
Representations. See under Customs Administration, supra; see also U. S.–British consultations, infra.
Salt Revenue Administration: Seizure of revenues, 79, 97, 103, 138, 247, 263; U. S.–British consultations regarding preservation of integrity of Chinese administrative services, inclusion in, 21, 46, 47, 63, 66, 108–110
U. S.–British consultations regarding preservation of integrity of, 21, 46, 47, 63, 64, 66, 74–75, 82–83, 108–112, 137, 149
Chinese Eastern Railway (see also under Action by Japanese armed forces, supra):
Employees: Chinese refusal to recognize officials appointed by "Manchoukuo," 74; demand of discharged employees for pension payments, 141
French investors, interest in, 67–68, 71, 360
"Manchoukuo": Claims to Chinese interests, 68; seizure of wharves belonging to Russia, 141
Communists, 135

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
"Manchoukuo" (see also Chinese administrative services, supra), Japanese efforts to establish as an independent state:
Application for membership in Postal Union, 125
Chinese Eastern Railway: Chinese refusal to recognize officials appointed by "Manchoukuo," 74; claims to Chinese interests, 68; seizure of wharves belonging to Russia, 141
Claims Commission, establishment for settlement of claims of domestic and foreign creditors, 353, 442–443
Courts, U. S., in China, question of judicial status of "Manchoukuo" in, 277–278
Customs Administration. See Chinese administrative services: Customs Administration: Assumption of control, supra.
Declarations concerning—
Intention to take over Manchurian customs: June 18, 97, 104–106; June 27, 120
Treatment of China as an alien nation in matters of customs, tariff, commerce, and navigation, 248; Chinese retaliatory measures, 273–275
Foreign and domestic loan service, arrangements for payment of, 95, 105, 106, 121, 184–185, 246–247; proposals to United States and other foreign creditor governments, texts, 184–185, 246–247
Foreign governments, relations with "Manchoukuo" officials (see also Recognition, infra): Germany, 271; Great Britain, 271, 279, 421; identic protests by members of Harbin consular body against application of certain regulations to their respective nationals, 122; United States, 28, 243, 270–271, 277–278, 279, 353, 421, 445
Independent status, Japanese efforts to convey impression of, 66, 159, 174
Japanese Embassy, establishment of, 378
Japanese subjects in service of "Manchoukuo" (see also Unification of Japanese authority, infra), number and status of, 64, 66, 120, 126, 158, 160–161, 282–285

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
"Manchoukuo"—Continued.
Loans from—
French banking concern, efforts to obtain, 67–69, 71–72, 360
Japan, proposed, 337; U. S.–French discussions regarding possible violation of China Banking Consortium, 377–378, 390–391
Postal Service: Application for membership in Postal Union by "Manchoukuo," 125; interference with, 263; U. S.–British consultations regarding preservation of integrity of Chinese administrative services, inclusion in, 46, 63, 66
Protocol with Japan, signed Sept. 15, 204, 218, 221–222, 230, 249, 253–254, 256–257, 262, 269–270; text, 253–254
Pu-yi (Hsuan-tung), 158, 159, 212, 215, 256–257, 263, 313, 357, 387, 437, 719
Recognition by—
Japan, questions concerning: China:
June 23, communication to League for action in view of passage of resolution for recognition by Japanese House of Representatives, 104, 107, 127; text, 104
June 23, request for action by United States in support of Nine-Power Treaty in view of passage of resolution for recognition by Japanese House of Representatives, 81–82, 84–85, 101–102, 119; text, 101–102
Sept. 16, appeal under Nine-Power Treaty to United States and other signatory powers in view of Japanese recognition of "Manchoukuo": Text, 255–256; U. S.–Chinese discussions, 228–229, 232–234, 254, 255–256, 259–261, 267
Sept. 16, note to Japan protesting against recognition of so-called "Manchoukuo," text, 262–265

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
"Manchoukuo"—Continued.
Recognition by—Continued.
Japan, questions concerning—Continued.
Determination of Japanese Government to recognize, 51, 63, 75–76, 79, 81, 82–83, 83–84, 92–94, 113, 128–129, 137, 142, 143–148, 162–163, 169–170, 174, 175–176, 176, 181, 189, 191, 193, 196, 199, 206, 207, 208, 210–211, 212, 215–219, 262, 292, 305, 700, 717; statement by Foreign Minister before Japanese Diet, Aug 25, 206, 207, 208, 210–211, 212, 215–219
Japanese Embassy in "Manchoukuo," establishment of, 378
Powers, attitudes:
France, 92, 129, 207, 218, 361, 400; representations to Japan, 129
Great Britain, 82–83, 128, 132–133, 149, 172, 174, 206–209, 218, 249, 404, 421; representations to Japan, 128, 132–133, 149, 174
Italy, 174
League of Nations. See League of Nations: Deliberations: Nonrecognition, supra.
United States (see also China: June 23, request for action; Sept. 16, appeal, supra; also League of Nations: Deliberations: Nonrecognition: Failure to support nonrecognition policy, U. S. views, supra), 133, 172, 262, 293–294, 373
Protocol between Japan and "Manchoukuo," signed Sept. 15, 204, 218, 221–222, 230, 249, 253–254, 256–257, 262, 269–270; text, 253–254
Public opinion in Japan, 76–78, 83, 93, 146–148, 170
Resolution for recognition, passage by Japanese House of Representatives, 80–81, 84–85, 101–102, 104, 128
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
"Manchoukuo"—Continued.
Recognition by—Continued.
Japan, questions, etc.—Con.
Statement by Foreign Minister before Japanese Diet, Aug. 25, 206, 207, 208, 210–211, 212, 215–219; opinion of League officials regarding, 215–219
Unification of Japanese authority in Manchuria, 75, 92–93, 188, 189–190, 192, 196; appointment of Gen. Muto as Special Plenipotentiary, 196
Poland, question of, 267
Russia, possibility of, 6, 64, 159, 218–219, 219, 267, 297, 315, 440
Request to adhere to International Radiotelegraph Convention of Washington (1927), 202–203
Salt Revenue Administration: Seizure of revenues, 79, 97, 103, 138, 247, 263; U. S.–British consultations regarding preservation of integrity of Chinese administrative services, inclusion in, 21, 46, 47, 63, 66, 108–110
Statement by Foreign Minister before Japanese Diet regarding intention to recognize "Manchoukuo," Aug. 25, 206, 207, 208, 210–211, 215–219; opinion of League officials regarding, 215–219
Suspension of parcel post service and money order business to and from Manchuria by United States and Philippines, 243
Unification of Japanese authority in Manchuria, 75, 92–93, 188, 189–190, 192, 196; appointment of Gen. Muto as Special Plenipotentiary, 196
Missionaries, American and British, 266, 270–271, 341
Protection of American and other foreign lives and property:
Consular body at Harbin: Identic protest to "Manchoukuo" authorities against application of certain regulations to their respective nationals, 122; proposals for protection of foreigners, 250, 266
Customs officials and employees, foreign, intimidation of, 116, 122, 125, 128, 130, 133–134, 135–136, 140–141, 223, 227

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Manchuria—Continued.
Protection, etc.—Continued.
Great Britain, danger to lives of British citizens from Chinese bandits, 238, 244, 298
Russia, capture and subsequent release of six Russians by Chinese bandits, 64
United States:
Assault upon Culver B. Chamberlain, American Consul at Harbin. See under Japan.
Claims for losses resulting from Japanese military action, procedure for settlement of, 353, 442–443; communication from "Manchoukuo" government concerning, 442–443
Danger to American lives from Chinese bandits, 244, 280, 304, 306–307, 308; protest by American Chamber of Commerce at Harbin, 304
Missionaries, 266, 270–271, 341
National City Bank of New York, interests of, 28, 54
Radio Corporation of America, questions concerning conclusion of contract with "Manchoukuo" authorities, 287–288
Talbot, Robert M., Commissioner of Customs at Antung, U. S. inquiries regarding intimidation by Japanese authorities, 130, 135–136, 223, 227
Railroads, U. S. interest in, Japanese views regarding, 350, 708
Nine-Power Treaties. See under Proposals and suggestions, infra.
North China, possibility of extension of hostilities to:
Amalgamation with "Manchoukuo" under Pu-yi as Emperor, rumored Japanese plans for, 312–313, 333–335, 387, 437, 719
Chang Hsueh-liang: Japanese opposition to, 77, 139, 164, 180, 194, 200, 215, 251, 281, 291, 302, 307, 312–313, 333–334, 375, 447; Lytton Commission, interview with, 154–155; military forces, 22, 164–165, 395; resignation as Peiping Pacification Commissioner because of opposition of Wang Ching-wei over "nonresistance" policy, 195, 196, 199–200, 201, 358
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
North China—Continued.
Jehol, extension of Japanese military influence to, 164, 171, 172–174, 174, 178–179, 180, 182, 185, 186, 194, 204, 205–206, 215, 232, 251, 261, 268, 312–313, 334, 381, 395, 446–447, 450, 458–459, 462–463
Military threats by Japan (see also Jehol, supra; Peiping: Japanese military threats to; Shanhaikwan; Tientsin: Japanese military threats to, infra), 125, 215, 220, 232, 245, 250–253, 280–281, 302, 375, 446–447, 458–459, 462–463
Peiping:
Foreign nationals, protection of, questions concerning, 251–252
Japanese military threats to, 139, 164, 185, 194, 232, 245, 251, 302, 375, 447
Legation Quarter, question of maintaining neutrality in event of hostilities:
Consideration by the interested powers of possible measures to insure immunity to, 185–186, 232, 251, 252–253, 280–281, 334, 561–562, 562–563, 563–570, 572, 573, 575–580
Japanese Legation Guard:
Action toward British officials, and Japanese apology, 214–215
Military maneuvers outside Legation Quarter, 570–572, 573–574, 575; U. S. position, 571–572, 574, 575
U. S. consent to Chinese proposal to move art collections into Legation Quarter, 575–576
Shanhaikwan, Japanese military activities at, 8, 30, 164, 411
Tientsin: Japanese military threats to, 139, 164, 185, 232, 251; neutralization of, proposed, 562; U. S. military forces in, 131–132
Proposals and suggestions for solution of dispute:
Arbitration, Chinese willingness to accept, 407
Chinese insistence on settlement of Manchurian conflict in harmony with general treaties, Dec. 22, 451
Commissions. See under League of Nation, supra.
Conciliation proposals. See under League of Nations: Deliberations, supra.

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Proposals—Continued.
Direct negotiations, 4, 55–56, 201–202, 310, 332, 355, 368, 369, 371, 381–382, 387–388, 392, 400, 407
Kellogg-Briand Pact. See Kellogg-Briand Pact, supra.
Manchuria: Autonomy, Chinese proposal for, 98; demilitarization, Chinese proposal for, 98; gendarmerie for policing of, proposed, 409; League of Nations mandate for, reports of, 76; nonaggression pact involving China, Japan, and Russia, Chinese proposal for, 98; suggestions prepared for Gen. McCoy regarding, 33–35, 58–61
Nine-Power Treaties of 1922:
Customs tariff treaty, Chinese appeal to United States and other signatory powers regarding Manchurian customs seizure, 102–103
General treaty of principles and policies:
Allusions to, 21, 39, 48, 53, 54, 56, 75, 128, 139, 152, 168, 209, 240, 390, 449, 719
Basis for proposals for settlement of dispute, 168, 202, 209, 214, 239–240, 300, 310, 348, 422, 423, 426, 451
China, appeals to the United States and other signatory powers regarding—
Manchurian customs seizure, 102–104, 126; text, 102–104
Recognition of "Manchoukuo" by Japan: June 23, text, 101–102; Sept. 16, 228–229, 232–234, 254, 255–256, 259–261, 267
Conference of signatory powers, League of Nations suggestion for, 323–324, 328, 329, 330, 332–333, 342–343, 346; U. S. attitude, 328–329, 332–333, 342–343, 346
Germany, nonratification of, 324, 375–376
United States:
China, appeals to United States. See China, supra.
Identic note of Jan. 7 to China and Japan, cited, 85, 166, 263, 271, 301, 311, 314, 347, 348
Letter from Secretary Stimson to William E. Borah (Chairman of Senate Foreign Relations Committee), Feb. 23, cited, 85, 127, 166, 301, 348
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Proposals—Continued.
Nine-Power Treaties—Continued.
General treaty, etc.—Continued.
Violation by Japanese action in Manchuria, charges of, and Japanese position, 93, 158, 162–163, 175, 176, 191, 212, 213, 264–265, 363, 380, 392
Protection of American and other foreign lives and property:
Manchuria. See Manchuria: Protection of American and other foreign lives and property, supra.
Peiping, protection of foreign nationals, 251–252
Shanghai, U. S. and British claims against China and Japan growing out of military action, 114–115
Shanghai:
Agreement between China and Japan for cessation of hostilities, signed May 5:
Allusions to, 3, 5, 7, 9, 11, 36, 50–51, 62, 72, 74, 413, 422
Appreciation of assistance of American Minister in negotiations leading to: Chinese, 45; Japanese, 16
Bombing incident of Apr. 29, 50
Incident of Jan. 28, cited, 90–91, 131–132, 197, 224, 236, 263, 356, 363, 380, 396, 408
Joint Commission for supervision of withdrawal of troops, 3, 6, 7, 12–13, 13, 18, 36, 50, 62, 190; U. S. representation, 18, 62
Statements concerning:
May 6, by Chinese Foreign Minister, 5–6
June 3, by Japanese Foreign Minister, text, 50–52; Chinese comments, 63
U. S. proposal for congratulatory statement upon completion of withdrawal of troops, 35–36, 44–45
Withdrawal of Japanese troops and Chinese resumption of control of evacuated areas, 2-3, 3, 5–6, 6, 6–7, 9, 10, 12–13, 13–14, 18, 19, 21, 25, 31, 35, 40, 45, 46–47, 50, 62, 72, 80, 169, 190; completion, May 31, 46–47
Boycott, anti-Japanese, recurrence of, and other Sino-Japanese disturbances, 209–210, 222–223
Cessation of hostilities. See Agreement, supra.
Conference concerning. See Round-table conference, infra.

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Shanghai—Continued.
Demilitarized zones, proposed, 55, 57
Free port, Japanese proposal for, 6, 55
International Settlement:
Defense plans for:
1927 plan, 26, 41
Dec. 18, 1931 plan: Discussions between U. S. State and Navy Departments regarding cooperation of respective officers under, 224–226, 237–238, 245, 246; U. S. cooperation under, discussions, 65–66, 85–91, 131, 132, 235–237
Extension of, Japanese proposal for, 6, 56–57
Foreign military and naval forces:
British, 1, 2, 16, 20
Italian, 16
Japanese. See Agreement: Withdrawal of Japanese troops, supra.
Problems concerning, 183–184
United States:
U. S. military and naval forces at, 2
U. S. Thirty-first Infantry Regiment: Incident at Settlement border involving members of, 2, 9, 11–12, 16, 24; removal of, 20, 21–22, 67
Japanese protest against attacks on Japanese civilians, 630–632
Municipal Council: Japanese ascendancy in, possibility of, 632, 636; Japanese interference with municipal administration, 11–12, 631–632
State of emergency declared Jan. 28, 2, 9, 65, 91, 132, 226; ending of, 72
Protection of foreign lives and property, U. S. and British claims against China and Japan resulting from military action, 114–115
Round-table conference of five interested powers (excluding China), Japanese proposal of May 13:
Discussions concerning, 13–15, 16–17, 18–19, 20–21, 25–28, 32–33, 40–42, 43, 47–49, 51, 54–55, 72
Joint verbal reply of powers, June 8, 69–70
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
Shanghai—Continued.
Round-table conference—Continued.
U. S. attitude, 16–17, 21, 26–27, 41, 48–49, 182–184
Withdrawal of troops. See Agreement between China and Japan for cessation of hostilities, signed May 5, supra.
Shanhaikwan, Japanese military activities at, 8, 30, 164, 411
Tientsin: Japanese military threats to, 139, 164, 185, 232, 251; neutralization of, proposed, 562; U. S. military forces in, 131–132, 333
Treaties:
Anglo-Japanese Alliance, cited, 319
Kellogg-Briand Pact. See Kellogg-Briand Pact, supra.
League Covenant. See League of Nations: Covenant, supra.
Nine-Power Treaties of 1922. See under Proposals and suggestions, supra.
Portsmouth Treaty (Japan–Russia, 1905), cited, 707
Sino-Japanese agreement concerning establishment of a maritime customs office at Dairen (1907), 67, 79, 95, 102, 112, 116, 136, 275
Sino-Japanese treaties concerning Manchuria: Dec. 22, 1905, 152–153; May 25, 1915, 153
Sino-Russian Agreement of 1896, 363
United States:
Arms and munitions (see also under China): Chinese desire to obtain from United States, 37, 38, 57–58; U. S. export restrictions on shipment to China, 57
Cooperation with League of Nations in efforts to preserve peace:
Commissions. See League of Nations: Lytton Commission: United States, supra.
Correspondence, June 15, League request for information and advice concerning possible Japanese recognition of "Manchoukuo," 79, 83–84, 92; text, 79
Exchange of views with League and League officials, 79, 83–84, 92, 122–123, 180–182, 215–219, 271–272, 292–293, 296–297, 300–301, 303, 304–305, 308–312, 315–325, 326–333, 336, 342–343, 346, 347, 347–352, 362, 381–383, 388, 388–390, 403–406, 413–414, 415–418, 420–430, 437–439

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
United States—Continued.
Cooperation with League—Con.
Nonassumption of responsibility for solution of dispute, and desire for League initiative, 271–272, 303, 316, 329, 342, 347, 348, 362, 368–369, 376, 385, 419–420
Nonrecognition of "Manchoukuo," League failure to support policy of, U. S. views and consultations concerning, 83–84, 92, 122–123, 228, 293, 303, 331–332, 337, 373–374, 376, 382–383, 384–385, 386, 388, 394, 403–404, 405–406, 415–417, 420, 421–422, 424–429, 430, 432, 439, 455
Participation in work of conciliation body, question of. See League of Nations: Deliberations: Conciliation proposals: Nonmember states, supra.
Representation at League meetings: Arrangements, 410; expression of American policy at Council meetings by Sir John Simon, 320–321
Review of American attitude by Secretary Stimson, Nov. 19, 347–349
Correspondence:
China–United States:
June 23, Chinese telegraphic appeal for action under Nine-Power Treaty in view of resolution for recognition of "Manchoukuo" passed by Japanese House of Representatives, 81–82, 84–85, 101–102, 119; text, 101–102
June 23, telegraphic appeal under Nine-Power Treaties respecting Manchurian customs seizure, text, 102–104
July 27, Chinese communication containing information of Japanese intention to appoint a special envoy to "Manchoukuo," text, 188
Sept. 16, Chinese note invoking Nine-Power Treaty in view of Japanese recognition of "Manchoukuo," 228–229, 232–234, 254, 255–256, 259–261, 267; text, 255–256
Sept. 26, U. S. acknowledgment of Chinese note of Sept. 16, 255*n*
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
United States—Continued.
Correspondence—Continued.
League of Nations–United States, June 15, League request for advice and information regarding Japanese intention to recognize "Manchoukuo," 79, 83–84, 92; text, 79
"Manchoukuo," unacknowledged communications from:
July 26, information as to arrangements for payment of foreign loan service of Chinese customs, text, 184–185
Aug. 19, request to adhere to International Radiotelegraph Convention, text, 202–203
Sept. 15, information as to arrangements for foreign loan payments, text, 246–247
Undated, telegraphic statement upon signing of Japan-"Manchoukuo" Protocol on Sept. 15, 249
Oct. 7, protest at failure of Lytton Commission Report to recognize independence of, text, 291–292
Nov. 7, announcement of intention to obtain loan from Japan, and invitation for American participation, text, 337
Dec. 15, information as to proposed arrangements for liquidating claims of foreign and domestic creditors, text, 442–443
Discussions with—
Belgium, 231–232
Canada, 388–390, 404–405, 418
China, 27, 36–40, 45, 52–54, 55–58, 81–82, 84–85, 101–102, 137–140, 165–169, 187, 188, 205, 228–229, 232–234, 254, 255–256, 259–261, 267–268, 297, 308–312, 356–357, 361–362, 368, 369, 375, 413, 419–420, 436–437, 446–447, 449, 458–459
France. See Foreign powers: France: United States, supra.
Germany, 375–376
Great Britain. See Foreign powers: Great Britain: United States, supra.
Ireland, 347
Japan, 192–193, 197–198, 206, 302, 344–345, 355–356, 357–358, 459–462

Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
United States—Continued.
"Manchoukuo":
Recognition by Japan, U. S. attitude and representations. See Manchuria: "Manchoukuo": Recognition: Japan: Powers: United States, supra.
Relations with officials of, 28, 243, 270–271, 277–278, 279, 353, 421, 445
Peiping, U. S. consent to Chinese proposal to move art collections into Legation Quarter, 575–576
Stimson, Henry L.:
Disarmament Conference: Attendance at, 2; comments, 19–20
Letter to William E. Borah (Chairman of Senate Foreign Relations Committee), Feb. 23, relating to the Nine-Power Treaty, cited, 85, 127, 166, 301, 348
Speeches:
Aug. 8, before Council on Foreign Relations, regarding Kellogg-Briand Pact, 188, 198–199
Oct. 1, at Philadelphia, Japanese criticism of, 293–294, 719
Oct. 26, at Pittsburgh, reference to Kellogg-Briand Pact and Far Eastern situation, 314–315
U. S. citizens:
Manchuria: Danger to American lives from Chinese bandits, 244, 280, 304, 306–307, 308; missionaries, 266, 270–271, 341; Talbot, Robert M., Commissioner of Customs at Antung, U. S. inquiries regarding intimidation by Japanese authorities, 130, 135–136, 223, 227
Missionaries, 266, 270–271, 341
Peiping, protection of foreign nationals in, question of, 251–252
Rea, George Bronson:
Activities and services on behalf of "Manchoukuo": Chinese protest, 205; Far Eastern Review, Chinese press restrictions against, and U. S. protest, 667–669
Propagandist for Japan, 152, 714
U. S. commercial interests:
Andersen, Meyer & Co., 151
Arms and munitions, U. S. export restrictions regarding shipment to China, 57
Sino-Japanese dispute—Continued.
U. S. commercial interests—Con.
Claims growing out of Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria, 353, 442–443; Shanghai, 114–115
Japan Advertiser, American-owned newspaper, Japanese attacks against, 677–678, 680
Manchuria:
National City Bank of New York, interests of, 28, 54
Open-door policy: Effect of Japanese occupation on, 151, 208; attitude of American businessmen, 151, 161
Railroads, U. S. interest in, Japanese views regarding, 350
National City Bank of New York: Interests in Manchuria, 28, 54; Japanese press attacks on, 241, 718
Radio Corporation of America, questions concerning conclusion of contract with "Manchoukuo" authorities, 287–288
Railroads in Manchuria, U. S. interest in, Japanese views regarding, 350
Suspension of parcel post and money order business to and from Manchuria by United States and Philippines, 243
U. S. military and naval forces:
Shanghai:
Cooperation of representatives of State and Navy Departments regarding defense of International Settlement, 224–226, 237–238, 245, 246
U. S. military and naval forces at, 2
U. S. Thirty-first Infantry Regiment: Incident at Settlement border involving members of, 2, 9, 11–12, 16, 24; removal of, 20, 21–22, 67
Tientsin, U. S. military forces at, 131–132, 333
U. S. Fleet, Japanese attitude regarding position in Pacific waters, 197–198, 289, 302, 325–326, 345, 719
Socony-Vacuum Corp., 606
Spain, position regarding proposed reorganization of Hai Ho Conservancy Commission, 670–671, 671*n*
Standard Oil Co., 464–465, 468, 471, 601, 604
Stimson, Henry L. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: United States.
Su Ping-wen. See under Sino-Japanese dispute: Manchuria: Action by Japanese armed forces: Chinese anti-"Manchoukuo" troops.

Taiwan Government General. See Japan: Philippine jurisdictional waters.
Talbot, Robert M., Commissioner of Customs at Antung, U. S. inquiries regarding intimidation by Japanese authorities, 130, 135–136, 223, 227
Taxation. See under China.
Territorial waters, 741, 742–743, 744, 746
Thorburn case, 525, 536, 539–540
Toyama, Mitsuru, 682, 721–722, 726
Trade restrictions. See China: Arms and munitions: Restrictions on transportation and China: Taxation: Imposition of taxes.
Treaties, conventions, etc. (see also under China, Japan, and Sino-Japanese dispute):
Barcelona Convention (1921), cited, 584–585
International Radiotelegraph Convention of Washington (1927), desire of "Manchoukuo" to adhere to, 202–203
Lausanne, Treaty of (1923), 343
Versailles, Treaty of (1919), 295
Turkish Foreign Minister, visit to Russia, 17

Union of Soviet Socialist Republics. See Sino-Japanese dispute: Foreign powers: Russia.
United States. See under China: Foreign powers and under Sino-Japanese dispute.
U. S. citizens. See under China and Sino-Japanese dispute.
U. S. commercial interests. See under China and Sino-Japanese dispute.
U. S. Immigration Act of 1924, exclusion clause, 462, 708, 715
U. S. military and naval forces. See under China: Protection and under Sino-Japanese dispute.

Versailles, Treaty of (1919), 295

Wang Ching-wei. See under China: Political situation.
War psychology. See under Japan.
Washington Conference of 1922, 63, 71
Whangpoo Conservancy Agreements, 597

Yangtze Rapid Steamship Co., 465, 467, 468, 474, 476, 505

☆U. S. GOVERNMENT PRINTING OFFICE 1948—646232