ARE YOU LOOKING FOR IT?

What?

Are you looking for foundation to use this year? Then don't look any farther, as DADANT'S has now been before the bee-keeping world for many years; stands without a rival today. If you never saw any of Dadant's foundation send a postal for free sample, together with their catalogue. They guarantee every inch of thier foundation to be as good as sample sent, and no complaints ever come against it. They have also revised Langstroth on the Hive and Honey Bee, and you can scarcely afford to do without this large and valuable book. Postpaid, $1.25. We sell everything needed in the apiary.
