INDEX.

	Geneva edition Page.	Second edition Page
ADAMS, CHARLES FRANCIS:
day of probable arrival in London known in advance	56	28
arrives in London	57	28
comments on negotiations regarding declaration of Paris	78	36
complains of doings at Nassau	232	95
complains of insurgent operations in British jurisdiction	248	101
says insurgent government is interested in blockade-running	282–284	114–115
further representations as to blockade-runners	288	117
representations as to the Honduras	289	117
notifies Earl Russell that sale of Sumter will not be recognized	321	130 informs Earl Russell of the character of the Florida	335	135 brings to Earl Russell's notice treatment of Florida in colonies	361	144
calls Earl Russell's attention to the Alabama	366	147
sends Earl Russell affidavits regarding Alabama	373	149
confers with Earl Russell about the Alabama	375	150
complains to Earl Russell of the Georgia	397	158
complains to Earl Russell of enlistments for the Georgia	399, 400	159
complains to Earl Russell of the Georgia	404, 405	161
complains to Earl Russell about the Shenandoah	421, 450	167, 178
complains to Earl Russell about the Laurel	452	179
ADAMS, JOHN QUINCY:
correspondence regarding claims of Portugal	139–145	60–62
ADMIRALTY AND COLONIAL INSTRUCTIONS:
of January 31, 1862, unfriendly to United States	229	94
abstract of those instructions	233	96
AGRIPPINA, THE:
takes stores and coal to Alabama at Terceira	378	151
takes coal to same at Martinique	382	152
AJAX, THE:
inquiries as to	298	120
ALABAMA, THE:
short sketch of	243	99
Lord Russell thinks it a scandal to British laws	254	104
description of	364	146
built for insurgent man-of-war	365	146
contracted for by Bullock	365	146
crew of, wages paid by Fraser, Trenholm & Co	366	146
customs officers report her a man-of-war	368	147
attention of Liverpool collector called to her	369	147
he sees nothing wrong in her	369	148
Mr. R. P. Collier's opinion taken as to	370	148
affidavits as to character of obtained and officially communicated to British government	371	148
these affidavits remain a week unacted upon	373	149
orders then given to detain	373	149
orders revealed and Alabama escapes	375	150
goes to Moelfra Bay and the Hercules follows next day with crew	376	150
gross inefficiency, or worse, of the collector	376	150
the Alabama proceeds to Terceira	377	151 receives arms, stores, and coal from Bahama and Agrippina	378	151
was adapted for warlike purposes when she left Liverpool	379	151
was fitted out there, at least in part	380	152
Semmes's opinion of the vessel	381	152
she receives coal from Agrippina at Martinique	382	152
is received at Jamaica as a man-of-war	382	152

	Geneva edition. Page.	Second edition. Page.
ALABAMA, THE:
goes to Brazil and the Cape of Good Hope	383	153
Mr. Adams complains to Earl Russell	383	153
her tender, the Tuscaloosa, (see Tuscaloosa)	385, 387	153, 154
she coals at Singapore	386	154
she coals again at Table Bay	386	154
is sunk off Cherbourg by the Kearsarge	387	154
reasons why Great Britain is liable for her acts	388	155
ALAR, THE:
takes arms and stores to the Georgia	396	158
ALEXANDRA, THE:
ruling of the court in the case of	161	68
seizure, trial, and acquittal	258	105
ruling of the court in, emasculated the foreign enlistment act of 1819	259	106 AMENDMENTS:
of municipal laws may be asked by a belligerent	147	63
of law of 1819 asked by the United States and refused	251, 253	103
AMPHION, THE:
inquiries as to	297	120
ARCHER, THE:
career of	363	145
ARMAN. (See Bullock; France.)
ARMING:
when arming a vessel is a violation of neutrality	159	68
should be prevented by due diligence	211	87
AYLIFFE:
views as to diligence and negligence	note. 153	65
BAHAMA:
takes out Florida's armament	334	135
arrival at Nassau	337	136
arms and crew from, for Alabama	378	151
BARBADOES:
a base of hostile operations	358	143
BARING, THOMAS:
speech on the Georgia	401	160
BELGIUM:
course of the government of, contrasted with that of the British government	462	183
BELLIGERENTS, (see Blockade; Russell:)
insurgents recognized as	47	25
recognition determined upon before May 1, 1861	50	26
France consulted as to recognition	52	27
answer of the French government	53	27
President's proclamation not then received	53	27
privateering of, legalized by Queen's proclamation	58	29
right to issue such proclamation not denied	63	31
it was an unfriendly act	63	31
and issued with an unfriendly purpose	64	31
may ask to have defective neutrality laws amended	147	63
BENJAMIN, JUDAH P.:
sends agents of insurgent war department to Nassau	224	92
BERMUDA:
(steamship) runs blockade with arms, &c	221	91
(island) well adapted as a depot of insurgent supplies	224	92
an insurgent depot established there	238	98
BERNARD, MR. MOUNTAGUE:
computes amount of cotton in 1861	note. 219	90
statement regarding Fraser, Trenholm & Co	note. 220	91
describes Nassau	note. 224	92
describes the Alexandra	note. 258	105

	Geneva edition. Page.	Second edition. Page.
BERNARD, MR. MOUNTAGUE:
gives list of vessels detained by Great Britain	296	120
his criticism on Mr. Fish's dispatch not sustained	300	121
his statement concerning the Florida ..... note	344	138
his statement as to prosecutions for offenses against foreign enlistment act	400	159
BLACKSTONE, SIR WILLIAM:
defines extent and force of law of nations	120	53
BLOCKADE:
notice of, by proclamation	45	24
proclamation of, when news of, received in England	47	25
an imperfect copy submitted to law officers for opinion	49	25
BLOCKADE-RUNNERS:
general character of, determined by insurgent government	223	92
converted into men-of-war, and vice versa	414	164
BLOCKADE-RUNNING:
operations in 1862	237	97
operations in 1863	274	111
insurgent government interested in	278	113
complaints thereof to British government	282	114
answer that it is no offense	282	114
further proof of insurgent interest in	286	116
BLUNTSCHLI, DR.:
definition of neutrality	123	54
criticism on the Alabama	171	72
BRAZIL:
course of the government of, contrasted with that of the government of Great Britain	465	184
BRIGHT, MR.:
views as to the Queen's proclamation	62	30
speech of, March 13, 1865	91	41
BULLOCK, JAMES DUNWOODY:
sent to England by the insurgents	218	90
arrives there in the summer of 1861	240	99
has an office with Fraser, Trenholm & Co	241	99
contracts for Florida and Alabama	241, 365	99, 146
superintends construction of rams	261	106
contracts for construction of men-of-war in France	266	108
remittances to	269	109
writes Waddell to stop destruction by Shenandoah	448	177
BURDEN OF PROOF:
thrown upon Great Britain to show that it exercised diligence	319	128
CAIRNS, LORD:
definition of due diligence	157	67
comment on the word "escape" ..... note	216	89
CALVO:
collects authorities defining neutrality	124	54
CAMPBELL, LORD:
views as to effect of Queen's proclamation	59	29
was Lord Chancellor when proclamation issued	98	44
CANNING, MR.:
his opinion regarding conduct of United States as a neutral	107	48
CAPE TOWN, (see Tuscaloosa:)
Alabama at	386	154
Georgia at	401	160
CHICKAMAUGA:
description of, and her career	413	164
shifts from blockade-runner to man-of-war	413	164
reasons why Great Britain liable for acts of	415	165

	Geneva edition. Page.	Second edition. Page.
CLAIMS OF THE UNITED STATES:
general statement of, by American commissioners	10, 469	9, 185
rejection of, by British commissioners	12, 469	10, 185
detailed statement of, where to be found and should be met by award of a gross sum	469, 480	185, 189
CLARENCE, THE:
career of	363	145
COAL, (see Alabama; Georgia; Florida; Shenandoah:)
great need of insurgents of, at Bermuda, in 1863	277	113
what is a just rule regarding supplies of	note 325	131
permission refused to the United States to deposit at Nassau	329	132
COCKBURN, SIR ALEXANDER:
charge to jury in Highatt's case	395	157
COBDEN, RICHARD:
says Great Britain has recognized duty to detain offending vessel coming within its jurisdiction	163–166	69–70
comments on loss of mercantile marine of United States	472	187
COLLIER, R. P.:
solicitor general in 1863, and now attorney general	370	148
his opinions in the Alabama matter	370, 372	148, 149
COMMISSION:
as man-of-war, effect of on offending vessel	202	84
how regarded by France, Great Britain, Spain, and Portugal	209	86
COMMON LAW OF ENGLAND:
international law is part of	61, 118	30, 52
COMPENSATION FOR INJURIES:
when it should be made	136, 169	59, 71
CONFEDERATE STATES. (See Insurrection.)
CONNECTICUT:
repairs refused to, at Barbadoes	357, 442	143, 175
CONTRABAND OF WAR:
a ship constructed in a neutral port for the use of a belligerent not to be confounded with	193	80
opinion of Ortolan, as to	195	81
opinion of Heffter, as to	196	81
opinion of Chief Justice Marshall, as to	201	83 dealings in, in what the trade of Nassau differed from	229	94
fraudulently cleared at Nassau for St. John's	236	97
COTTON:
furnished means for carrying on the war	218	90
amount unexported in April, 1861	note 219	91
CRIMEAN WAR:
course of Great Britain toward Prussia during	108	48
DACOTAH, THE:
treatment of, at Bermuda	353	141
DALLAS, MR.:
interview with Lord John Russell, April 9, 1861	43	23
interview with same, May 1, 1861	46	24
DAVIS, JEFFERSON, (see Insurrection:)
chosen president of insurgent government	37	21
his speech acknowledging the same	38	21
DEPOSIT OF OFFENSE:
cannot be made fraudulently	209, 213	86, 88
DILIGENCE:
what is due	150	64
correlative with negligence	151	64
necessary extent of, in order to escape responsibility	152	65
definition of term due diligence	158	67
duty of a neutral to exercise	211, 212	87
abandonment of, in advance by Great Britain	256, 317	104, 128
DROUYN DE LHUYS:
his note to Mr. Dayton, concerning iron-clads	267	109

	General edition. Page.	Second edition Page.
DUDLEY, CONSUL:
his energetic action regarding the Alabama	370	148
ENGLAND. (See Great Britain.)
EQUIPPING:
when equipping a vessel is an offense	159	68
defined in the Alexandra case	161	68
defined in the British act of 1870	161	69
should be prevented by due diligence	211	87
EVIDENCE, (see Treaty of Washington:)
of the United States, how cited and arranged	30	17
FAWCETT, PRESTON & CO.: contract for the Florida	241, 332	99, 134
FISH, MR.:
his instructions to Mr. Motley	64, 300	31, 121
	466	184
the allegations in those instructions sustained	300	121
contrasts the course of Great Britain with that of other powers	466	184
FITTING OUT:
of a vessel, when a violation of duties of a neutral	159	68
should be prevented by due diligence	212	87
FLORIDA, THE:
construction of, advanced in November, 1861	241	99
sketch of proceedings as to	242	99
money sent to Nassau for, through J. Fraser & Co	246	101
proceedings at Nassau as to	247	101
Lord Russell thinks it a scandal to British laws	254	104
Bullock makes contract for	332	134
coals at Liverpool and registers as a British vessel	333	134
armament for, shipped in the Bahama	334	135
clears for Palermo and Jamaica	336	135
customs officers report to be a man-of-war	336	135
arrives at Nassau	337	136
proceedings against, at Nassau	338	136
complaints as to, disregarded	341	137
civil authorities neglect duty in proceedings against	343	138
judge disregards law and evidence in decision as to	346	139
crew enlisted for, at Nassau	347	139
clearance of, for St. John's a fraud	348	139
receives arms and stores in British waters	348	139
attempts to elude Spanish laws and fails	350	140
enters and leaves Mobile	350	140
coals and provisions in excessive quantities at Nassau	351	141 receives fresh supplies at Barbadoes in one month thereafter	355	142
protest of Admiral Wilkes as to	355	142
receives repairs at Bermuda	358	143
goes to Brest	359	144
receives crew, armament, and machinery from Liverpool	359	144
receives repairs and supplies at Bermuda	360	144
these repairs of, and supplies excessive	361	145
termination of cruise at Bahia	362	145
career of tenders of	363	145
reasons why Great Britain is liable for acts of	363	145
FOREIGN ENLISTMENT ACT OF 1819:
is founded on the United States laws	107	47
intended to aid in performances of international duties	108	48
duies recognized by it	111	49
commission to revise	113	50
report of commissioners as to	114	51
object of proposed commission	116	51
inefficiency of the act	250	102
propositions for amendment of	251, 253	103
declined by Great Britain	251, 253	103
emasculated by ruling in Alexandra case	258	105

	Geneva edition. Page.	Second edition. Page
FOREIGN ENLISTMENT ACT OF 1870:
provisions of	117	51
judicial construction of	117	52
its object, to enable Great Britain to fulfill international duties	117	52
FRANCE:
joint action of, invited and secured	45	24
how regards the effect of a commission on a cruiser illegally fitted out	209	86
detains vessels constructed by Arman	267	109
course of, contrasted with Great Britain's	463	183
FRASER, TRENHOLM & CO.: firm of, when founded in Liverpool	219	91
treasury depositaries of insurgents	220	91
insurgent remittances to Bullock through	269	109
supply Walker with coal at Bermuda	278	113
pay wages of Alabama crew	366	146
GENET, (see Washington :)
commissions French privateers in United States in 1793	127	55
Jefferson's rebuke of	129	56
GEORGIA, THE:
sketch of career	256	105
built for insurgents, description of	392	156
crew for, engaged and shipped in Liverpool	393	157
registered as a British vessel	393	157
armed from the Alar	396	158
negligence of British government as to	398	158
complaints of enlistments for	399	159
returns to Liverpool	401	160
her career sketched by Mr. Thomas Baring	401	160
goes into dock at Liverpool	406	161
captured by the Niagara	406	162
reasons why Great Britain liable for acts of	406	162
GEORGIANA, THE:
inquiries as to	296	120
GETTYSBURGH:
preparations for the battle of	276, 277	112
GLADIATOR, THE:
insurgents contract in London to purchase	225	93
arrives in Nassau with arms and munitions of war	226	93
gets permission to break bulk and transship	226	93
GLADSTONE, RIGHT HON. W. E.: declines to consider effect of Queen's proclamation on privateering	58	29
speech of October 7, 1862	89, 215	41, 89
speech of June 30, 1863	95	43
GRAN PARA, THE:
opinion of the court in the case of	201, 206	83, 85
GRANVILLE, LORD:
definition of due diligence	157	67
GREAT BRITAIN, (see United States; Crimean war :) friendly relations of, with United States before 1860	31	19
various treaties with	31, 32, 33	19, 20
early informed of views of Mr. Lincoln's Government	42	23
joint action of, with France	45	24
invitation of, for such joint action unfriendly	46	24
law of nations part of law of	61, 118	30, 52
conduct in Trent affair	82	38
cabinet of, personally unfriendly to United States	97	43
people of, with some exceptions, unfriendly	98	44
possible reasons for such unfriendliness	99	44
action of, influenced by it	102	45
its neutrality laws	1071–18	47–51
proclamation of its neutrality	57, 122	28, 53
instructions to officials of, during insurrection	125	55

	Geneva edition. Page.	Second edition Page.
GREAT BRITAIN:
minister of, intervenes against course of Genet	129	56
reply of Mr. Jefferson to	129	56
duties recognized in its correspondence with United States	135	58
branches of insurgent government established in	221	91
admiralty instructions of, unfriendly to the United States	228	94
recapitulation of breaches of international duty of	300	121
the base of the insurgent naval operations	310	125
the arsenal of the insurgents	310	125
the systematic operations of the insurgents in a violation of its international duties	311	126
its neutrality partial and insincere	313	126
hostile and unfriendly acts tolerated in	314	127
abandons all diligence in advance	317	128
confidential instructions of, supposed to conflict with published instructions of January 31, 1862	430	171
course of, contrasted with the course of other Powers	466	184
GROSS SUM:
reasons for awarding a, to the United States	467	185
HAMMOND, MR.:
British minister to United States in 1793	128	56
complains of acts of Mr. Genet	128	56
receives Mr. Jefferson's reply	129	56
HARDWICK, LORD:
views as to privateering	59	29
HAUTEFEUILLE:
definition of neutrality	124	54
his views regarding construction of a vessel of war on belligerent account in neutral territory	171	72
HAWK, THE:
a blockade-runner, inquiries as to	297	120
HECTOR, THE:
built for Great Britain	296	120
HEFFTER:
on contraband of war and the illegal construction of ships of war	196	81
HEYLIGER, LEWIS:
appointed agent at Nassau for disposal of insurgent cotton, and for shipment of arms and supplies	225	92
has confidential relations with colonial authorities	228	94
operations of, in 1862, reviewed	237	97
takes charge of Florida and Bahama at Nassau	337	136
HERCULES, THE, (see Alabama:)
inquiries as to	298	120
HICKLEY, CAPTAIN, R. N.:
his opinion of the Florida at Nassau	338	136
HUSE, CALEB:
sent to England by the insurgents	218	90
ships arms and munitions thence in 1861	221	91
ordered to ship purchases to West India Islands	235	97
operations of, in 1862, reviewed	237	97
INSURGENTS:
government interested in blockade-running	282	114
make Great Britain the base of their naval operations	310	125
INSURRECTION, (see Belligerents:)
secession of South Carolina and other States	36	21
election of president and vice-president	37	21
a large party in the South opposed to	39	22
letters of marque authorized	44	24
would have succumbed earlier but for aid from Great Britain	311	126 INTERNATIONAL, THE:
decision as to, under foreign enlistment act of 1871	117	52

	Geneva edition. Page.	Second edition. Page.
INTERNATIONAL LAW:
a part of the common law of England	61, 118	30, 52
IRON-CLADS, (see Laird's rams:)
insurgents' contract for six, in 1862	246	101
JACQUEMYNS. (See Rolin.)
JAMAICA:
the Alabama at	382	153
JAY'S TREATY. (See United States.)
JEFFERSON, MR.:
reply to Mr. Hammond's representations	129	56
his views of the duty of a neutral nation	133	58
JOINT HIGH COMMISSION:
meeting at Washington	9	9
protocol of conferences	10	9
JONES & CO.:
ship crew for Georgia in Liverpool	393	157
trial of members of, before Sir Alexander Cockburn	394	157
KLINGENDER, M. G. & Co.:
connected with Fraser, Trenholm & Co ..... note	323	130
purchase the Sumter at Gibraltar	323	130
and pay the wages of Alabama crew ..... note	323	130
LAIRD, JOHN:
speech of, April 27, 1863	90	41
& Son's contract for Alabama	241	99
and accompany her as far as the buoy when she sails	376	150
LAIRDS' RAMS:
contract for, and construction	261	106
various representations by Mr. Adams as to	263	107
Lord Russell refuses to interfere with	263, 264	107
the seizure and detention of, not an abandonment of previous lax rule by British government	264	108
LAUREL, THE:
takes arms and crew to Shenandoah	419	166
Mr. Adams complains of	452	179
LEWIS, SIR GEORGE CORNWALL:
says a proclamation will be issued by the Queen	56	28
opinion as to the duties of neutrals	60	30
LINCOLN, PRESIDENT, (see United States; Blockade:)
elected President	36	21
inaugurated	42	23
convenes Congress, and calls out militia	44	24
LIVERPOOL:
branches of insurgent government established at	221	91
collector of, notified as to Alabama	369, 371	147, 148
LOUISA ANN FANNY, THE:
inquiries as to	298	120
LYNDHURST, LORD:
views as to law of England and duties of neutrals	60	30
MAFFITT, COMMANDER:
arrives in Nassau	227	93
sends to Bullock men discharged from Florida	269	110
ships crew for Florida at Nassau	347	139
MANSFIELD, LORD:
opinion in case of Russian ambassador	119	52
MARSHALL, CHIEF JUSTICE:
opinion in the Gran Para case	201, 206	83, 85
on the effect of a commission upon a man-of-war	204	84
MAURY, THE BARK:
seized by request of British minister at Washington	134	58
seizure without cause and discharged	135	58
MELBOURNE. (See Shenandoah.)

	Geneva edition. Page	Second. edition Page
MERCANTILE TRADING COMPANY:
form partnership with insurgent government	279	113 MONROE, JAMES:
correspondence regarding claims of Portugal	138	59
MUNICIPAL LAWS:
designed to aid in performance of international duty	106	47
international obligation not dependent upon them	106, 211	47, 87
an evidence of the nation's sense of its duties	106	47
neutral bound to enforce	211	87
belligerent may require enforcement of	211	87
and enactment of new, if existing laws insufficient	211	87
Great Britain held legal proof of violation of, to be necessary before its action as a neutral could be required	369	147
MUNICIPAL PROCLAMATION:
the United States had a right to expect the enforcement of	135	58
NASHVILLE, THE:
escapes from Charleston	328	132
receives excessive supply of coal at Bermuda	329	132
Burns the Harvey Birch	330	133
arrives at Southampton	330	133
proceeds to Bermuda and coals there	330	133
reasons why Great Britain should be held responsible for acts of	331	133 NASSAU:
well adapted for a depot of insurgent supplies	223	92
made an insurgent depot and base of operations, note	224, 225	92, 93
Mr. Adams complains of, to Lord Russell	232	95
made depot for quartermaster's stores	280	114
civil authorities of, act in interest of insurgents	342	137
NETHERLANDS:
course of government of, contrasted with that of Great Britain	463	183
NEUTRALITY:
definitions of, by Phillimore, Bluntschli, Hautefeuille, and Lord Stowell	123, 124	54
duty to observe	210	87
failure to observe as to San Jacinto and Honduras	288	117
NEUTRALITY LAWS, (see Foreign Enlistment Act:) of United States enacted at request of Great Britain	133	58
NEUTRALS, (See Paris; Belligerents; Treaty of Washington:)
duties of, as defined in the treaty of Washington	22, 148	14, 63
duties and rights of, as defined in the declaration of Paris	69	33
animus of, the sole criterion according to Lord Westbury	101	45
bound to enforce municipal laws in belligerent's favor	108, 211	48, 87
duties of, recognized in the Queen's proclamation	123, 125	54, 55
bound to enforce municipal proclamations	135, 211	58, 87
use all the means in its power to prevent violations of their neutrality	136, 212	59, 87
when liable to make compensation	136, 212	59, 87
should amend defective neutrality laws when requested by belligerents	147, 211	63, 87
when should institute proceedings to prevent violations of neutrality	147	63 should detain offending vessels coming within their jurisdiction	162, 211	69, 87 should not permit their ports to be made the base of hostile operations	166, 212	70, 87
summary of the duties of, as applicable to this case	210–213	86–88 obligations of, as to an offending vessel, not discharged by commission as man-of-war	213	88
nor by evasion of municipal law	213	88
when they may not set up a deposit of the offense	213	88
NORTH:
sent to England by the insurgents	218	90
Miss, names the Virginia, (or Georgia)	392	156

	Geneva edition. Page	Second edition. Page
ORETO. (See Florida.)
ORTOLAN, THEODORE:
views of, as to construction of men-of-war for belligerents in neutral ports	181	76
says such vessel not to be confounded with ordinary contraband of war	195	81
PALMER, SIR ROUNDELL:
his definition of due diligence	157	67
his statement of the opinions of British lawyers	162 note.	69
his views as to the effect of a commission upon an offending vessel	204	84
his speech on the Georgia	403	160
PALMERSTON, LORD:
thinks separation must take place	55	28
awaiting opinion of law officers	55	28
speech of, March 27, 1863	94	42
speech of, June 30, 1863	96	43
speech of, July 23, 1863	108	48
minatory conversation with Mr. Adams	234	96
PAMPERO, THE:
seizure of, and trial	260	106
PARIS, DECLARATION OF:
unfriendly course of Great Britain as to, detailed	65–82	31–38
PHANTOM, THE:
a blockade-runner	297	120
PHILLIMORE, SIR R. J.:
decision in the case of the International	117	52
definition of neutrality	123	54
PIERANTONI:
criticism on the Alabama	184	77
PORTUGAL:
abstract of correspondence between, and the United States	137–146	59–62
principles recognized by, in that correspondence	146	62
recognizes international duty to make compensation for injuries committed by cruisers fitted out in neutral port	169	72
how regards effect of commission on such cruiser	209	86
course of government of, contrasted with that of British government	463	183
PRIOLEAU, CHARLES K.:
managing member of Fraser, Trenholm & Co	220	91
becomes naturalized as British subject	220	91
PRIVATEERING:
declaration of congress of Paris, as to	69	33
Great Britain willing to legalize with insurgents	74	35
but not with the United States	77	36
PROCLAMATION:
announcing blockade. (See Blockade.)
recognizing insurgents as belligerents. (See Belligerents.) the Queen's, a recognition of the international duties of Great Britain	105	47
such duties recognized by it defined	123, 125	54
PROSECUTIONS. (See Bernard.) PRUSSIA:
course of government of, contrasted with that of British government	464	183
RAMS. (See Laird's rams.) RAPPAHANNOCK:
short sketch of	291	118
is detained by French authorities	292	118
course of French government as to, contrasted with conduct of British officials	293	118
REGRET. (See Treaty of Washington.)

	Geneva edition. Page.	Second edition. Page.
RETRIBUTION, THE:
built at Buffalo, captured by rebels	390	156
turned into a cruiser	390	156
her career	390, 392	156
ROLIN, JACQUEMYNS:
views as to the Queen's proclamation	64	31
views as to British neutrality	87	40
criticism on Mr. Bernard's book	176	74 RULES, (see Treaty of Washington; Neutrals:)
the principles stated in these rules in force before the Treaty of Washington	148	63
RUSSELL, LORD JOHN, (see Russell, Earl, where references to, are indexed:)
created Earl Russell during insurrection	97	44 RUSSELL, EARL, (see Dallas; Adams, Charles Francis:) promises to await Mr. Adams's arrival	43	23
discusses independence with insurgent commissioners	51	26
calls the United States the northern portion of the late Union	54	27
is doubtful June 1, 1861, whether there is a war	57	28
speech of, October 14, 1861	87	40
speech of, February 5, 1863	90	41
speech of, June 9, 1864	96	43
says the insurgents build ships of war in Great Britain because they have no ports of their own	215	89
reply to Mr. Adams's complaints regarding Nassau	232	95 declines to act on Mr. Adams's complaints regarding insurgent operations in February, 1863	249	102 declines to advise amendment of foreign enlistment act	251, 253	103
says the Alabama and Oreto are a scandal to British laws	254	104
thinks the interest of the insurgent government in blockade-runners should not be interfered with	282, 284 / 290	114, 115 / 117
letter to Mason, Slidell, and Mann	309	125 reply to Mr. Adams's note regarding sale of Sumter	322	130 sends Mr. Adams the report of customs officers on the Florida	336	135 reply to Mr. Adams regarding treatment of Florida at Bermuda	361	144 tells Mr. Adams to refer evidence about Alabama to Liverpool collector	366	146 conference with Mr. Adams after escape of Alabama	375	150 says Alabama was partly fitted out in Great Britain	380	152
reply to Mr. Adams's complaints about Georgia	397	158
forwards Bullock's letter to Waddell	448	178
reply to Mr. Adams's complaints regarding Laurel	453	180
RUSSIA:
course of the government of, contrasted with that of Great Britain	464	183
RUSSIAN AMBASSADOR:
arrest of, in time of Queen Anne	119	52
SALDANHA'S EXPEDITION:
arrest of, at Terceira	194	81
SALISBURY, MARQUIS OF:
speech of, when Lord Robert Cecil	99	44
SAN JACINTO:
how treated at Barbadoes	356	142
SANTISIMA TRINIDAD:
opinion in case of	197	82
SEA-KING, THE. (See Shenandoah.) SEMMES, RAPHAEL, (see Alabama:)
his opinion of the Alabama	381	152

	Geneva edition. Page.	Second edition. Page.
SEWARD, MR.:
instructs Mr. Adams to complain of insurgent operations made from British jurisdiction	248	101
SHIPS. (See Vessels.)
SHENANDOAH, THE, OR SEA-KING:
short sketch of	293	118
built in Clyde, and attracted Dudley's attention	416	165
description of	416	165
sold to father-in-law of Prioleau	416	166
sails armed, and under command of Corbett, a well-known blockade-runner	417	166
her officers and crew sail from Liverpool in the Laurel	418	166
is armed from the Laurel at Madeira	420	167
is short of men	421	167
arrives at Melbourne	424	168
her transfer to the insurgents known there in advance of her arrival	424	168 representations as to, by United States consul to authorities	424	169
captain of, asks permission to coal and make repairs	426	169
permission granted	427	169
delay in reporting what repairs were necessary	427	170
report as to repairs made five days after arrival	428	170
permission to repair again granted	428	170
captain is requested to name day when he can go to sea	429	170
many men are illegally enlisted for crew of	429	170
proceedings as to, in colonial legislature	430	170
correspondence with colonial authorities regarding enlistments for	431	171
enlistments continue; repairs suspended	432	172
repairs resumed and completed	433	172
three hundred tons of coal taken from a transport sent for the purpose from Liverpool	434	172
consul furnishes proof of illegal enlistments to colonial authorities	434	172
no action taken thereon	434	173
number and notoriety of enlistments	435–439	173–174
no supplies or coal needed for	439	174
repairs prolonged to enlist men	440	174
no repairs needed	441	175
critical examination of report of repairs	443–447	176–177
returns to Liverpool	449	178
violations of neutrality by	450	178
reasons for holding Great Britain liable for acts of	454	180
SINGAPORE:
Alabama coals at	386	154
SLAVERY:
opposition to the limitation of, the cause of secession	37	21
SPAIN:
recognizes international duty to make compensation for injuries by cruisers fitted out in violation of international duty	109	72
how, regards the effect of a commission on such cruisers	209	86
course of the government of, contrasted with that of the British government	464	183
STOERKODDER, THE, OR STONEWALL:
short sketch of career of	268	109
STORY, MR. JUSTICE:
definitions of diligence	154, 156	66
opinion in the case of the Santisima Trinidad	197	82
STEPHENS, ALEXANDER H.:
vice-president of insurgent government	37	21
his views as to slavery	38	22
his speech against secession	38	22

	Geneva edition. Page.	Second edition. Page.
SUMTER:
proceedings at Gibraltar as to	245	100
proceedings at Trinidad as to	247	101
coals at Trinidad	320	129
arrives at Gibraltar	321	129
shut up there by Kearsarge	321	129
sold under protest of United States consul	321	130
treatment of, a partiality toward insurgents	323	130
reasons why Great Britain liable for acts of	327	132
SUMTER, FORT:
surrender of	44	24
SWEDISH VESSELS:
the case of	187	78
TACONY, THE:
career of	363	145
TALLAHASSEE, THE:
fitted out in London as a privateer	409	163
her career	410	163
what was done at Halifax as to	411	163
reasons why Great Britain liable for acts of	412	164
TENTERDEN, LORD:
memorandum on neutrality laws	106	47
says privateering was suppressed by reason of the course adopted by Washington	131	57
TERCEIRA, (see Saldanha's expedition :)
Alabama arrives there	378	151
TRANSSHIPMENT OF CONTRABAND OF WAR:
the permission in colonial ports a failure to perform the duties of a neutral	227	93
injurious to the United States	227	93
TREATY OF WASHINGTON:
expresses regret at escape of the cruisers	18	12
terms of submission of claims of the United States	18	12
meeting of the arbitrators, provisions for	19	13
time for delivery of cases and evidence	20	13
time for delivery of counter cases and evidence	21	13
when originals must be produced	21	13
duties of agents of each government	21	13
counsel may be heard	22	14
rules applicable to the case, (see Neutrals)	22, 149	14, 63
award, when and how made	24	14
board of assessors, how constituted and duties of	25	15
the first clause in the first rule to be found in United States neutrality law of 1794	150	64
what is due diligence	150–158	64–67
fitting out, arming, or equipping, each an offense	159	68
reasons for words "specially adapted," &c	159	68
continuing force of second clause of first rule	163	69
limitation and explanation of second rule	167	71
recognizes obligation to make compensation for injuries	169	71
TREATY OF 1794. (See United States.)
TRENHOLM, GEORGE A.:
principal member of firm of Fraser, Trenholm & Co., and secretary of insurgent treasury	220	91
TRENT. (See Great Britain.)
TRINIDAD:
The Sumter at	247, 320	101, 129
TUSCALOOSA, OR CONRAD:
a prize captured by the Alabama	270	110
claims to be received at Cape Town as a tender	270	110
is seized, then released, and recived as man-of-war	272	110
this decision reversed in London	272	111
comes again to Cape Town and is seized	273	111
this act disapproved in London	274	111

	Geneva edition. Page	Second edition Page.
TWENTY-FOUR HOURS' RULE:
contained in admiralty and colonial instructions	233	96
UNITED STATES, (see Great Britain; Washington:)
relations with Great Britain before 1860 friendly	31	19
various treaties with Great Britain	31–33	19–20
number of States and Territories in 1860 note	35	20
election of Mr. Lincoln as President	36	21
secession of South Carolina and other States	36	21
cause of secession	37	21
neutrality law of 1818 note	112	50
had no municipal law in 1793 to aid in performance of international duties	127	55
course during President Washington's administration	127	55
treaty of 1794	131	57
construction thereof by commissioners	132	57
enact neutrality laws at request of Great Britain	133	58
correspondence with Portugal	137–146	59–62
principles recognized by that correspondence	146	63
what they regard as due diligence	158	67
seizure of Spanish gun-boats in 1869	160	68
character of southern blockaded coast	222	92
VESSELS OF WAR, (see Commission; Contraband; Neutrals:)
of belligerents, sale of, in neutral ports	322	130
VIRGINIA, THE:
inquiries as to	298	120
WACHUSETT:
treatment of, at Bermuda	353	142
WALKER, NORMAN S.:
made insurgent agent at Bermuda	238	98
his urgent demand for coal	277	113
is supplied with coal by Fraser, Trenholm & Co	278	113
WASHINGTON, PRESIDENT:
his course toward Mr. Genet	1291–31	56–57 determines to restore prizes captured by privateers fitted out in United States
his course suppressed privateering	131	57
WESTBURY, LORD:
appointed Lord High Chancellor, June, 1861	98	44
regards animus of neutral as sole criterion	101	45
says United States may use Queen's proclamation to prove animus	101	45
says ship should not be built in neutral port by belligerent with view to war	185	78
WILKES, ADMIRAL:
correspondence with governor of Bermuda	355	142