INDEX
INDEX

Abyssinia. See Ethiopia.

Afghanistan, U. S. recognition of Government of Mohammed Zahir Shah, 747-750

Agreements. See Trade agreements; Treaties, conventions, etc.

Anti-dumping Act of 1921, cited, 400, 402-403, 406

Anti-trust Act of 1914, cited, 444-445, 455-456

Arms and munitions. See under Turkey.

Austria, 1-70

Dollfuss, Engelbert. See Political developments: Murder of Chancellor Dollfuss, infram.

Economic conditions, 2, 4, 8, 26, 43

German crisis of June 30 ("Blood Purge"), reaction in Austria, 229-230

Oil imports, U. S. assistance to Vacuum Oil Co. in its effort to secure increase in quota, 61-70

Political developments:

Catholic Church, attitude, 5

Economic conditions, relation, 2, 4, 8, 26, 33, 43

German involvement. See under Murder of Chancellor Dollfuss and Nazi activities, infram.

Heimwehr, role of, 11-13, 18, 19, 21-22, 26, 37, 42

Jewish question, 2, 3, 4, 5, 19

Murder of Chancellor Dollfuss and attempted Nazi putsch. Events, reports concerning, 29-30, 32, 33, 35-40, 41, 44-45, 46-47; German involvement, 31, 34, 37, 38-39, 40-41, 44-46; Italian troop orders, relation to, 32, 41, 49; letters of sympathy sent by U. S. Secretary of State and President Roosevelt, 31: organization and aims of Schuschnigg Cabinet follow, 32, 33, 34-35, 41-42, 43

Nazi activities (see also Murder of Chancellor Dollfuss, supra):

German involvement, 2, 8-9, 9-10, 24, 25, 26-27, 35, 42-43, 43, 47, 50, 54, 58; threatened Austrian appeal to League of Nations protesting, 5-7, 8-9, 13-14, 15-16, 23

Government efforts to dissipate, 2-3, 5, 8, 17, 25, 27

Reports, general, 1-2, 3-4, 10, 15, 19, 23-24, 25, 26-27

Austria—Continued

Political developments—Continued

Pappen, Franz von, appointment as German Minister and significance of mission, 32, 33, 39-41, 47-49, 49-57, 57

Socialist uprising and its suppression, reports concerning, 10-12, 14-15, 16-17, 18-20, 21-22, 25, 42

Strangling of Hitler and Mussolini, relation to, 27-29

Viewpoint of Czechoslovakia, 17-18, 31; France, 7, 9, 13, 15-16, 28, 34, 44; Germany, 9, 10, 24, 27, 38, 39-41, 42-43, 54-56; Great Britain, 7-8, 9, 13-14, 34, 38, 44, 49; Italy, 9, 12, 13-14, 15, 24, 25, 27, 34, 41, 44, 49; Sweden, 52-53; United States, 4, 20-21, 33-34, 44

Trade agreement with United States, possibility of opening negotiations for, 58-61; visit of Austrian trade mission to United States, 58-59

Aviation, U. S. arrangements with—Belgium (1932), withdrawal of denunciation by Belgium, 94-98

Denmark, exchanges of notes signed Mar., 12, 14, and 24, citations to texts, 128

Netherlands, negotiations regarding proposed air navigation arrangement, 635-641

Bahrein, Persian claim to sovereignty in, 890-893

Bank for International Settlements, 362-363, 367

Belgium (see also Morocco), 71-98

Agreement with United States concerning reciprocal recognition of airworthiness of aircraft (1932), suspension of denunciation of, 94-98

Taxation of American firms operating in Belgium through Belgian agents: Information on change in tax policy and U. S. informal representations, 87-91; situation of Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co., 88-89, 91-93

Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions, 71-86

Boycott. See under Germany: Anti-Nazi activities in United States.
Bulgaria, 99–109
Dual nationality and military service, U. S. desire for treaty relative to, 102–104; Bulgarian position, 104–106
Military coup d'état and Cabinet changes, 99–102
Petroleum monopoly legislation, U. S. representations to safeguard investment of Socony-Vacuum Oil Co. in Petrole, 106–109

Capitulatory rights in Egypt, 751–753; in French Zone of Morocco, 845, 851–854, 897
Cartel, international nitrate, 213, 214
Catholic Church, in Austria, 5; in Germany, 268–270, 271–273, 277
Churches in Germany, Nazi efforts to control, 285–280
Claims. See Germany: Mixed Claims Commission; Turkey: Agreement with United States for the settlement of claims; and under Ethiopia and Finland.
Commercial treaties and agreements. See Trade agreements; and under Treaties.

Commissions:
Anglo-Ethiopian Boundary Commission, 765–766, 774
High Commission for Refugees (Jewish and Other) Coming from Germany. See under Germany.
International Financial Commission, 538, 542, 543, 545–546, 547
Mixed Claims Commissions:
U. S.–Germany. See under Germany.
Conventions. See Treaties, conventions, etc.

Czechoslovakia, 110–122
Austrian political situation, views on, 17–18, 31
German minority, report of U. S. Chargé concerning their history, current situation, relation to Czechoslovak Government, and attitude toward National Socialism and Germany, 110–120
Mormon missionaries threatened with expulsion, U. S. informal representations on behalf of, 120–122

Danzig, Free City of. See Poland.
Dawes and Young loans, service of. See under Germany: External debt.
Debts. See Germany: Debt agreement with United States and External debt; Greece: American loans.

Denmark, 123–128
Arrangements with United States relative to air navigation, airworthiness of aircraft, and pilot licenses, effected by exchanges of notes signed Mar. 12, 14, and 24, citations to texts, 128
Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions, 123–128
Diplomatic immunity, case of chauffeur of Rumanian Minister, 684–686
Disarmament Conference, General, 976–979
Discrimination, alleged, against American trade in—
    Belgium, taxation of American firms operating in Belgium through Belgian agents, 87–84
    Estonia, 129–133
    France, restrictions on importation of nitrates, 210–214
    Germany. See Germany: External debt; also under Germany: Trade relations.
    Greece. See under Greece.
    Latvia, 614–616
    Portugal. See Portugal: Flag discrimination.
    Turkey, 956–958, 959
Dual nationality and military service, proposed treaty between United States and Bulgaria concerning, 102–106

Egypt, U. S. inclination to acquiesce in diminution of capitulatory rights concerning air navigation over Egypt without prior assent, 751–753
Estonia, alleged discrimination against American trade, U. S. representations concerning, 129–133

Ethiopia, 754–780
Claim of an American citizen for illegal detention in Ethiopia, U. S. insistence upon satisfactory settlement, 775–780
Italian-Ethiopian conflict:
    Preliminary Italian maneuvers against Ethiopian independence:
        British and French alleged assurances to Italy of non-interference, 757–760, 762–763, 768–769, 775
    Gonder incident, 760–761, 764
    Military preparations for operations against Ethiopia, reports and comments concerning, 754, 756, 761–765; Italian denial of hostile intent, 755–756, 757, 763
Ethiopia—Continued
Italian-Ethiopian conflict—Continued
Walwal incidents, dispute resulting from:
Information concerning incidents, 765–768
Italian demands, and Ethiopian presentation of question to League of Nations, 770, 772–773, 774–775
Position of Great Britain, 770–771, 773; of United States, 760–771, 771–772, 774
Views of Italian Ambassador in United States, 771
U. S. protest against discourtesy to the American Minister in connection with illegal detention in Ethiopia of an American citizen, 775–780
Export-Import Bank, 945, 955, 958, 965–968, 969
Extradition (see also under Treaties), Turkish extradition of Samuel In- suul, 578–579

Fascism in Austria, 1, 11–13
Finance Corporation of America. See under Liberia.

Finland, 134–166
Claims against United States arising from the detention of Finnish ships in American harbors, representations concerning, 147, 150–157, 190, 161–166; U. S. position, 147–150, 157–160
Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions concerning, 141–146
Treaty of friendship, commerce, and consular rights with United States; Negotiations, 134–140; text signed Feb. 13, citation to, 141
Firestone interests. See Liberia: Finance Corporation of America and Firestone interests.

France (see also Morocco), 167–214
Austrian political situation, views on, 7, 9, 13, 15–16, 28, 44
Discriminatory restrictions on importation of nitrates, U. S. informal representations concerning, 210–213, 214; French position, 213
Double taxation convention with United States (1932), question of ratification by France: French concern over possible further devaluation of the dollar in United States and other monetary matters, 170–172; relation to question of negotiation of a trade agreement between United States and France, 186–188; U. S. efforts leading to French ratification, 167–170, 172–175
Ethiopian-French attitude, 737–769, 762–763, 765–769, 775
Tariff on American rice imported into France, U. S. efforts to secure minimum rate, 190–196
Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions, 175–190
Turkey’s alleged desire for revision of Straits Convention, French attitude, 974–975
Turnover tax on American imports, U. S. efforts to use name protection of French wines to secure reduction of:
Information concerning proposed U. S. regulations on use of geographic names on wines and liquors, 196–198
Negotiations based on U. S. proposal, 198–208; French counterproposal, 209–210
Wines, question of protection in American markets for names of origin. See Turnover tax, supra.
Germany (see also Austria: Political developments: German involvement; Czechoslovakia: German minority), 215–532
Arrangement with United States granting relief from double income tax on shipping profits, 498–502
Churches, Nazi efforts to control: Catholic Church, 268–270, 271–273, 277; Evangelical churches, 265–268, 270–271, 273–280
Claims. See Mixed Claims Commission, infra.
Commercial treaty with United States (1933). See under Trade relations, infra.
Debt agreements with United States of June 23, 1930, and May 26, 1932, amounts due under:
Inquiries by United States as to Germany’s intentions relative to its obligation, 469–470, 493–495; German attitude, 471–475, 496–498
Germany—Continued

Debt agreements with United States—Continued
Negotiations for transfer transaction in connection with payment due Sept. 30, 1933, 478–480, 481–484
Partial payment of interest, 475–478
Postponement of payment due Sept. 30, 1934, 481

Educational institutions: Naziization of schools and teaching practices, 281–290; restriction of enrollment in universities, 280–281

External debt, difficulties arising from German discrimination and curtailment of service:
American and British bondholders of other than Dawes and Young loans, discrimination against (see also Negotiations, infra):

Dawes and Young loans, question of servicing:
German agreements with Great Britain, information and U. S. attitude, 376–380, 389; with other countries, 389–390

Situation of American bondholders, 390–391

Résumé of situation, 387–396

Transfer situation in Germany (see also Negotiations; Special agreements, supra), German communications to United States of—
June 15, 356–363; U. S. reply, June 27, 365–373
June 21, 373–376
Aug. 1, 380–385

Germany—Continued

High Commission for Refugees (Jewish and Other) Coming from Germany, U. S. interest in work of:
Meetings of Governing Body of the High Commission (see also Recommendations, infra), U. S. participation, 303–304, 305, 310–318

Monetary transfers from Germany, question of, 312, 319

Recommendations of Governing Body concerning passports, treatment of stateless refugees, and refugees of non-German origin:
May 2–4, 308–311; U. S. attitude, 312–315
Nov. 2–3, 318–319

Transfer of office of High Commission from Lausanne to London, 319–320

Hindenburg, Paul von, 225, 228, 231, 232, 240, 242, 243, 256
Hitler Youth, 224, 225–226, 268–269, 285–288

Jews, Nazi persecution of, 291–301; U. S. Congressional resolution relative to, discussion concerning, 293–294

Mixed Claims Commission, U. S.—Germany, U. S. efforts to conclude settlement of claims under:
Miscellaneous cases, U. S. desire to complete settlement pending final disposition of sabotage cases, 485–487, 490–491; German attitude, and disposition of certain cases, 491–498
Sabotage cases, question of action on, 487–491

U. S. inquiry as to Germany’s intentions relative to payments due under debt agreement of June 25, 1930, 493–495; German position, 496–498

Nazi propaganda in United States, U. S. attitude toward, 526–532
Germany—Continued

Oil reserves, German efforts to increase through arrangements with Anglo-Persian, Royal Dutch Shell, and Standard Oil of New Jersey:
Negotiations between German Government and oil companies, reports concerning, 320-325
Proposal of German Dye Trust: Information concerning, 325-326, 329-330; interest of U.S. and British Governments, 326-329, 330; signature of contract by the oil companies with the Dye Trust, 330-331

Papen, Franz von: Mission to Austria, 32, 34, 39-41, 47-49, 49-57, 67; speech on aims of German revolution, and reaction of other leaders, 224, 225-229, 231, 235, 242

Political developments under National Socialist regime:
Concentration of governmental powers, laws and decrees increasing, 215-216, 217-218, 238, 244, 248-251

Crisis of June 30 ("Blood Purge"): Reports concerning, 229-238, 240-243; speech of U.S. official regarding, German protest and U.S. position, 238-240

Death of President Hindenburg and assumption by Hitler of Presidential powers sanctioned by plebiscite, 243-247, 256

Foreign policy: Propaganda activities directed toward Germans abroad, 253-255; Stra meeting between Hitler and Mussolini, 27-28, 222-223; relations with United States, discussion between U.S. Ambassador and Hitler concerning, 218-221

Papen, Franz von, speech on aims of German revolution, and reaction of other leaders, 224, 225-229, 231, 235, 242

Reichsrat, abolition of, 217-218

Social and economic discontent, reports on evidences of, 216-217, 224-225, 240, 243, 251-253

Germany—Continued

Propaganda: Activities directed toward Germans abroad, 253-255; cases of Nazi propaganda in United States, U.S. attitude, 520-522

Stras meeting between Hitler and Mussolini, 27-28, 222-223

Trade relations with United States:
Commercial treaty with United States (1933): Abrogation, question of, 445, 452, 454; modification of art. 7, German intentions regarding, 453, 454-455, 463-464
Commodities, discussions concerning: Automotive products, 441, 455, 458-460; lard, 365-366, 422, 424-426, 432-433, 442-443; lumber and wire, 446, 447; wines and spirits, 456-458, 461
Exchange restrictions, 428-429, 430-432
Message from Hitler to President Roosevelt regarding economic restoration, and reply, 419
Most-favored-nation clause (see also Commercial treaty, supra): German basis of application, 419-420, 423-424; question of redefining, 467-468, 460-444
Proposals with respect to general trade situation: Discussions, general, 421-423, 468-469; German proposal looking toward direct negotiations, 461-467; U.S. memorandum of possible procedures, 448-453
Scip procedure, German explanation of and discussions with United States, 400-406
Summary of German actions detrimental to American trade interests, 362-365, 366
Trade mission to United States, proposed, 415-417, 422-423
U.S. Anti-trust Act, question of possible violation, 444-445, 455-456
U.S. special tax on use of certain foreign-built boats in United States, German protests and U.S. legislative action, 502-507
Great Britain (see also Germany: External debt and Oil reserves; Morocco): Austrian political situation, British views, 7–8, 9, 13–14, 34, 35, 44, 49; Ethiopian-Italian conflict, British attitude, 757–760, 762–763, 765–769, 770–771, 773; Liberia, British exchange of views with United States relative to reforms in, 796–797, 798–801, 803–804, 825–826; Turkey, alleged desire for revision of Straits Convention, British attitude, 979–980

Greece, 533–538

American loans to Greece under the Agreements of May 10, 1920, and May 24, 1932, U. S. insistence upon Greek responsibility for the service of: Greek delay and failure to service debt fully: Attitude toward loans and ability to pay, 533–536, 549; partial payment of interest, 537–538, 541–544, 546–547; postponement of payment of Bond No. 13, 538–539

International Financial Commission, activity of, 538, 542, 543, 545–546, 547

U. S. statements of Greek indebtedness, 539–541, 544–545, 547–549

Discrimination against American trade in the barter policy of the Greek Government: Information concerning Greek actions contrary to modus vivendi of 1924, and basis of present policy, 550, 553, 555–557; negotiation of a reciprocal trade agreement as possible solution, exploratory conversations relative to, 558–566; U. S. representations, reports and discussions concerning, 550–552, 553–555

Insull, Samuel, case of:

Departure from Greece: Events leading to, 566–569, 570–572, 573, 574; passport, question of, 566–567, 572

Destination, conflicting reports from various countries concerning, 569–570, 573, 574–577

Detention and extradition by the Turkish Government, 576–579

Return to United States, 579–583

Loans. See American loans to Greece, supra.

Immigration Acts, cited, 313, 314–315

Insull, Samuel. See under Greece.

Iraq, extradition treaty with United States, text signed June 7, 751–757

Italy (see also Ethiopia: Italian-Ethiopian conflict; Morocco), 584–613

Austrian political situation, Italian views, 9, 12, 13–14, 15, 24, 25, 27, 34, 41, 44, 49

Extradition treaty with United States to replace treaty of March 23, 1886, proposed, 601–606

Import quota system, U. S. representations concerning basis and retroactive character of, 597–601

Income tax exemption on reciprocal basis for journalists, Italian proposal and U. S. reply, 612–613

Nationality, conditions indicating voluntary acceptance of Italian nationality conferred upon naturalized American citizens under Italian law, 606–612

Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions relative to, 584–597

Turkey’s alleged desire for revision of Straits Convention, Italian attitude, 975–976, 981–982

Japan: Competition in Moroccan trade, 846, 848–849, 850, 852–853, 856, 858, 861, 862, 867, 881; Turkey’s alleged desire for revision of Straits Convention, Japanese attitude, 982

Jewish question: Austria, 2, 3, 4, 5, 19; Germany, 291–301

Kellogg-Briand Pact, 769, 770, 771

Labor. See under Germany.

Latvia, 614–619

Discrimination against American trade, alleged, U. S. representations, 614–616

Naturalization and military service treaty with United States, status of negotiations for, 617–619

League of Nations:

Austrian dispute with Germany, possible presentation to League, 5–7, 8–9, 13–14, 15–16, 22

Ethiopian dispute with Italy, presentation to League, 770, 773, 774–775

High Commission for Refugees (Jewish and Other) Coming from Germany. See under Germany.

Liberia, League Plan of Assistance. See under Liberia.

Turkey, Straits question. See Turkey: Convention relating to the Regime of the Straits.
Liberia, proposed administrative and fiscal reorganization, 788-835
Barclay Plan. See Liberian Government's plan for reforms, infra.
League of Nations Plan of Assistance, Liberian Joint Resolution amounting to rejection of Plan: British exchange of views with United States, 796-797, 798-801, 803-804, 825-826
Information concerning Resolution, and text dated Jan. 12, 798-799
League position and withdrawal of Plan, 790-792, 797-798
U. S. efforts for Liberian reconsideration of Plan, 793-796
Liberian Government's plan for reforms:
Approval by Liberian legislature, 830
Text, dated Aug. 28, 815-823; letter of President Barclay relative to, 824-825
Transmittal to United States, and comments by Harry A. McBride in his report of Oct. 3, 806-815
U. S. consideration, and exchange of correspondence between McBride and President Barclay, 827-835
McBride Mission to Liberia (see also Liberian Government's plan, supra): Purpose of mission and arrangements for, 802-803; report, Oct. 3, 804-815
Lithuania, U. S. concern over trade policies and practices restricting American trade, 620-626
Loans. See Germany: External debt; Greece: American loans.
McBride Mission. See under Liberia.
Military service. See Bulgaria: Dual nationality; Latvia: Naturalization; Yugoslavia.
Mormon missionaries in Czechoslovakia, threatened expulsion, 120-122
Morocco, representations by United States and other governments for protection of treaty rights, 836-883
French Zone:
Customs matters. See Modification of Moroccan Customs Regime, infra.
Extraterritorial jurisdiction of United States and Great Britain, question of maintenance, 843, 851-853, 859-854, 867
Morocco—Continued
French Zone—Continued
Gate taxes, increase in, protest of United States and other governments, 841-843
Modification of Moroccan Customs Regime, French proposal:
Information concerning, 836-838, 839, 844-846, 850-851, 866-867
Position of—Belgium, 849-850
Great Britain, 846-847, 850, 860, 861-862, 868, 886, 887
Italy, 847-849, 855-856
Netherlands, 845, 860, 887
United States, 853-854, 856-857, 859-860, 861, 863-866, 869-870, 875-879; French attitude, 879, 881
Quota system, French proposal. See Modification of Moroccan Customs Regime, supra.
Recapitulation of treaty violations and of U. S. representations, 843-844, 870-874
Spanish Zone:
Consumption taxes on wheat, flour, and other commodities, protests by—Italy and other governments, 841, 857-859, 868-869
United States, 839-841, 874-875, 879-880, 882-883
Customs duties, Spanish desire for increase in, 838, 849
Treaties and agreements concerning Morocco, cited: Act of Algeciras (1906), 836-877 passim; Franco-British accord of 1904, 869, 877-878; Franco-German agreement of 1911, and Franco-Spanish treaty of 1912, 877-878; Madrid Convention of 1889, 841-842, 854
Most-favored-nation clause. See under Germany: Trade relations.
Munitions. See Turkey: Arms and munitions.
Mussolini, Benito, 12, 24, 25, 27-28, 41, 48, 222-223, 954, 961
National Industrial Recovery Act, 709, 711-712, 714, 729, 739-751
Netherlands (see also Morocco), 627-641
Air navigation arrangement with United States, proposed, negotiations regarding, 635-641
Germany, special agreement with. See under Germany: External debt: Negotiations.
Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions, 627-635
Nitrates, French discriminatory restrictions on importation of, 210-214
Norway, preliminary discussions relating to a trade agreement with United States, 649-674
Norwegian desire and U. S. plans for opening of negotiations, 642, 646, 650
Observations of U. S. Minister on trade situation, 642-646, 655-671
U. S. tax on whale oil, problems arising from, 646, 648-649, 650-655, 671-674
Oil. See Bulgaria: Petroleum; Persia: Claim; and under Austria and Germany.

Papen, Franz von. See under Germany.
Persia, 884-893
Claim to sovereignty in Bahrain, in connection with Bahrain oil concession of Standard Oil Co. of California, 890-891; U. S. attitude, 891-893
Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions concerning reciprocal concessions on rugs and automotive products, 884-890
Poland, adherence of the Free City of Danzig as a contracting party to U. S.-Polish treaty of friendship, commerce, and consular rights, 675-676
Portugal, trade relations with United States, 677-683
Flag discrimination against American shipping, 678-683; U. S. decision to discontinue trade agreement discussions, 652-653
Wines and flour, temporary agreement relative to, 677-678
Quotas (see also Morocco: French Zone: Modification of Moroccan Customs Regime): Austria, U. S. assistance to Vacuum Oil Co. in its efforts to secure increase in quota, 61-70; France, U. S. representations concerning discriminatory restrictions on importation of nitrates, 210-214; Italy, U. S. representations concerning import quota system, 597-601; Spain, agreement with United States involving quota for wines imported from Spain, 689-691

Refugees, High Commission for. See under Germany.
Roosevelt, Franklin D. (President): Letter of sympathy upon murder of Chancellor Dollfuss of Austria, 31; opinion relative to preliminary trade agreement negotiations with Scandinavian countries, 729; recognition of Government of Mohammed Zahir Shah, King of Afghanistan, 748-750; reply to message from Hitler, 419
Rumania, resinding of penalties imposed in Rhode Island on chauffeur of the Rumanian Minister in violation of diplomatic immunity, 684-686

Saar, 247
Settlement of War Claims Act (1928), cited, 494-495, 497
Shipping, discrimination against American shipping by Germany, 636, 487-490, 441-442, 447-448, 453-458, 461; by Portugal, 678-685
Spain (see also Morocco), 687-708
Agreement with United States relative to wines and tobacco, effected by exchange of notes signed Feb. 16 and 23, 687-691; texts of notes, 689-690
Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions:
Condition of U. S.-Spanish trade, 691-694, 695-699
Import concessions by United States to Spain on grapes, 694-695, 702-703
Modus vivendi to cover period of negotiations: Discussions resulting in exchange of notes, 699-702, 703-706; texts of notes, 706-707
Opening of negotiations, 707-708
Sweden, 709-733
Austrian political situation, Swedish attitude, 52-53
Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions: Exploratory exchange of views, 709-713, 719-733; observations of U. S. Minister on Sweden's trade policies and commercial treaties, 713-719
Switzerland, 734-741
Special agreement with Germany. See under Germany: External debt; Negotiations.
Trade agreement with United States, preliminary discussions respecting, 734-741
Tariff Act of 1930 (see also Trade Agreements Act), cited, 400, 402, 467, 674

Taxation. See France: Double taxation convention and Turnover tax; Germany: Arrangement with United States and U.S. special tax; Italy: Income tax; Morocco; Norway: U.S. tax; and under Belgium.

Trade agreements between United States and other countries:
Basic theory, 127–128, 185, 562, 564, 593–595, 633
U.S. preliminary discussions concerning negotiations with—
Austria, 58–61
Belgium, 71–86
Denmark, 123–128
Finland, 141–146
France, 175–190
Germany. See under Germany: Trade relations.
Greece, 558–566
Italy, 584–597
Netherlands, 627–635
Norway, 642–674
Persia, 884–890
Spain, 691–708
Sweden, 709–733
Switzerland, 734–741
Trade discrimination. See Discrimination.
Trade agreements, etc. (see also Trade agreements):
Algeciras, Act of (1906), 836–877 passim
Arms Traffic Convention (1925), cited, 970
Aviation, arrangements between United States and—Belgium (1932), Belgian withdrawal of denunciation of, 94–95
Denmark, exchanges of notes signed Mar. 13, 14, and 24, citations to text, 128
Commercial treaties and agreements between United States and—Estonia (1925), cited, 132
Finland. See Finland: Treaty.
Germany. See under Germany: Trade relations.
Greece, modus vivendi of 1924, 550–566 passim
Norway (1929), cited, 646, 648, 653, 659–673
Poland (1931), adherence of Free City of Danzig as a contracting party, 675–676

Treaties, conventions, etc.—Continued
Commercial treaties and agreements between United States and—Con. Portugal, modus vivendi of 1910, cited, 583
Turkey (1929), cited, 944, 962
Debt and claims agreements between United States and—
Germany. See Germany: Debt agreements and Mixed Claims Commission.
Greece. See Greece: American loans.
Turkey. See Turkey: Agreement with United States.
Ethiopia: Agreement between France, Great Britain, and Italy respecting independence of Ethiopia (1996), cited, 762–763; pact of amity with Italy (1928), cited, 764, 765
Extradition treaties between United States and—
Iraq, text signed June 7, 781–787
Italy (1868), proposed treaty to replace, 601–606
Turkey (1923), ratification, 935–939
Kellogg-Briand Pact, 769, 770, 771
Morocco, treaties concerning. See under Morocco.
Naturalization treaty between United States and Bulgaria (1923), cited, 105
Oslo Convention of Economic Rapprochement (1930), cited, 63, 645, 717
Ouchy Convention (Belgium–Netherlands–Luxemburg, 1932), 74, 76–77, 83
Strait's Convention. See Turkey: Convention relating to the Regime of the Straits.
Sweden, commercial treaties with other countries, information concerning, 714–718
Taxation. See France: Double taxation convention with United States; Germany: Arrangement with United States.
Turkey, 894–900
Agreement with United States for the settlement of claims:
Negotiations:
Initial discussions of a lump sum settlement, 894–901
Mixed Claims Commission:
Methods of procedure, 901–902, 910–918; negotiations, 902–906, 918–933
U.S. proposal of protocol, and Turkish attitude, 906–910
Text signed Oct. 25, 933–934; ratification by Turkey, 935
Turkey—Continued
Arms and munitions of war, question of exportation from United States:
Information concerning Turkish preparedness program and plans for purchasing arms, 900–905
U. S. policy not to encourage sales abroad by American firms: Definition of term "arms and munitions", 969–971; Jones & Lamson Machine Co., question of possible sale of machinery to Turkey, 965–968, 969; steel construction material, U. S. reply to inquiry concerning, 968; trade between United States and Turkey, effect of policy on, 954–955
Claims, U. S.-Turkish. See Agreement with United States, supra.
Convention relating to the Regime of the Straits (1923):
Revision, Turkey's alleged desire for:
Report concerning, with brief historical review, 971–972
U. S. inquiries as to action of Turkey and attitude of other governments, 973
Replies from France, Great Britain, Italy, Japan, and Turkey, 974–976, 979–981, 981–982
Report on developments at League of Nations and Disarmament Conference, 976–979
Strait Commission established by the Convention, relations with League of Nations, 985–990
Extradition treaty with United States signed at Lausanne, Aug. 6, 1923, ratified by United States and Turkey, 935–939
Insull, Samuel, extradition, 576–579
Strait questions. See Convention relating to the Regime of the Straits, supra, and U. S. rights, infra.
Trade relations with United States, question of improvement:
Armament program of Turkish Government, relation to trade situation, 955
Discrimination against American trade, evidences of, 956–958; Turkish assurances as to non-intention of discrimination, 959
General situation, reports and observations of U. S. Ambassador, 940–947, 959–960; views of Department of State, 948–949

Turkey—Continued
Trade relations, etc.—Continued
Industrialization plan of Turkish Government, opportunities for American contracting firms, 949–951, 953–956, 958–959
New treaty to strengthen U. S. position, possibility of, views of U. S. Ambassador, 942–943, 949, 951–953
U. S. rights in navigation of the Straits, U. S. consideration of a possible agreement with Turkey regarding, 974, 981, 983–985
U. S. citizens: Ethiopia, illegal detention of Dr. Reuben S. Young, U. S. representations, 775–780; Italy, conditions indicating voluntary acceptance of Italian nationality conferred upon naturalized American citizens under Italian law, 608–612; Yugoslavia, right of American citizens of Yugoslav birth to visit Yugoslavia without being liable for military service, 742–746
U. S. commercial interests (see also Liberia: Finance Corporation of America and Firestone Interests):
U. S. Congress: Resolution relative to treatment of Jews in Germany, discussion concerning, 293–294; resolution of July 2, 1921, relative to claims against Germany, cited, 494
U. S. Treasury Department, opinion on nature of U. S. tax levied on whale oil imported from Norway, 653–654, 673–674
Whale oil imported from Norway, U. S. tax on, 646, 644–649, 650–655, 671–674
Wines and liquors. See France: Turn-over tax; Spain: Agreement with United States; and under Portugal.
Young, Dr. Reuben S. (U. S. citizen), claim for illegal detention in Ethiopia, 775–780
Yugoslavia, right of American citizens of Yugoslav birth to visit Yugoslavia without being liable for military service, 742–746
Zeelandia, case cited, 156, 165–166