CONTENTS

PREFACE ......................................................................................................................... III

LIST OF ABBREVIATIONS AND SYMBOLS .................................................................... VII

LIST OF PERSONS ........................................................................................................ XIII

LIST OF SHORT TITLES ................................................................................................... XXIII

LIST OF SOURCES .......................................................................................................... XXV

MULTILATERAL RELATIONS:
United States policy with respect to Eastern Europe:

Significant events in Eastern Europe and the development of United States policy: political and economic reorganization in Czechoslovakia, Hungary, and Rumania; the Otais case in Czechoslovakia; topics of discussion at the United States Chiefs of Mission meetings in Paris (March 3-5, 1952), Luxembourg (September 19-21, 1953), and Vienna (September 22-24, 1953); plans to exploit unrest in Eastern Europe; food and flood relief proposals; political warfare ................................................................. 1

United States support of refugees and escapees from Eastern Europe; the President’s escapee program; the Volunteer Freedom Corps; other exile groups .................................................................................................................. 159

Trieste:
United States interest in securing a settlement of the dispute between Italy and Yugoslavia over the Free Territory of Trieste:

A. The announcement by the United Kingdom and the United States of their intention to transfer administration of Zone A to Italy, October 8, 1958 ............................................................................................................................... 241
B. Negotiations in London between the United Kingdom, the United States, and Yugoslavia, February-May 1954 ................................................................. 365
C. Negotiations in London between the United States, the United Kingdom, Italy, and Yugoslavia aimed at securing a final settlement, June-August 1954 ........................................................................................................ 439
D. The Murphy mission to Belgrade and Rome, September 1954 ................................ 513
E. The initialing in London, October 5, 1954, of a memorandum of understanding regarding Trieste by representatives of the United States, Italy, the United Kingdom, and Yugoslavia ........................................... 557

Balkan Pact:
CYPRUS:
United States interest in agitation for enosis (union of Cyprus with Greece) and in the question of self-determination for Cyprus at the United Nations................................................................. 674

ALBANIA ........................................................................... 754

FINLAND:
United States interest in the maintenance of the independence of Finland. 755

GREECE:
United States concern with Greek political, economic, and military affairs; negotiation of a military facilities agreement between the United States and Greece; United States assistance to Greece; offer of additional Greek armed forces for the United Nations Command in Korea; visit of the King and Queen of Greece to the United States...... 780

TURKEY:
United States relations with Turkey: United States economic and military assistance; visits of United States officials to Turkey and Turkish officials to the United States; development of Turkish oil resources; and the problem of illicit traffic in narcotics................................................................. 865

UNION OF SOVIET SOCIALIST REPUBLICS:
Principal issues in relations with the Soviet Union: major appraisals and estimates of the Soviet Union; reports on developments of significance within the Soviet Union of concern to relations with the United States ................................................................. 954

YUGOSLAVIA:
United States efforts to support the independence of Yugoslavia through military and economic assistance programs and through the encouragement of expanded Yugoslav relations with the West; United States attitude toward the normalization of relations between Yugoslavia and the Soviet Union and toward the ties between Yugoslavia and non-aligned nations................................................................. 1264

INDEX ........................................................................... 1439