CONTENTS

DRESSMAKING

By Mary I. McIntyre

CHAPTER I

PLAIN SEWING

Even basting—Straight running seam—Backstitch—Hemming—Plain fell—French fell—Overcasting—Gathering—Tucking—Shirring—Buttonholes—Buttons—How to apply a flat facing—Tape—Loops of tape for towels . . . 3–19

CHAPTER II

UNDERWEAR

Materials—A word about paper patterns—How to make drawers—Open drawers—Closed drawers: To put on the band—The trimmings used on drawers and how to make them: How to measure a tuck; How to put in insertion; To sew edging on the bottom of drawers—Pajamas—Petticoats—Nightgowns: The yoke; The opening of a nightgown—To make an under waist: Trimming; Placing belt . . . 20–33

CHAPTER III

NEGligee Apparel

Shirt-waist suits—Dressing sacks: Summer wear sacks; Square necks; Accordion-plaited dressing sacks—Handkerchief kimonos . . . . . . . . . 34–37
CONTENTS

CHAPTER IV
CLOTHING FOR YOUNG CHILDREN

The baby's layette—Play dress for boys and girls—The Buster Brown dress—The blouse dress—A baby dress—A coat for a baby boy—A Dutch suit . . . . . . 38-47

CHAPTER V
GIRLS' CLOTHING

The sailor suit—The guimpe dress—The suspender dress—The "Peter Pan" dress—Light dresses . . . . . 48-52

CHAPTER VI
BOYS' CLOTHING

"Ready-to-wear" clothes—Boys' suits—Corduroy suits—Blouse suits—Clothing for night wear—Outdoor dress and accessories . . . . . . . . 53-58

CHAPTER VII SKIRTS

The lining skirt: How to cut a five-gored skirt; To baste the skirt; To fit the skirt—The plaited skirt—Another style of plaited skirt—A slot-seam skirt—A circular skirt—Cutting a bias—Fitting the skirt—Tailor's tacking . . . . 59-73

CHAPTER VIII
MAKING A WAIST

Cutting the lining—Fitting the lining—Finishing the lining—Featherbone—Position of bone in attachment—Darts—Finishing bones at top—To bone a collar—The sleeves—How to sew hooks and eyes on a waist—The collar—Draping the waist—A plain draped waist—Draping the sleeves—The belt or girdle—Trimming waists—The good figure . 74-101
CONTENTS

CHAPTER IX
LINGERIE WAISTS AND SHIRT WAISTS

Lingerie waists—Shirt waists . . . . . . . . 102-109

CHAPTER X
COATS AND WRAPS FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

Sponging the cloth—Making the foundation—Trimming off the foundation—Padding—Making the back—Making the collar—Fitting the revers to the collar—Finishing off the edges—The lining—A coat sleeve—Pressing—An Eton coat—A box coat—A tight-fitting coat—Coats for children—Materials for children’s coats—Capes—The adjustable shoulder form . . . . . . . . 110-137

CHAPTER XI
GIRDLES, COLLARS, SLEEVES, ETC.

Separate girdle, closed at back—Girdle, closed in front—Flowered ribbon girdle, opening in back—Trimmed girdle—Transparent collar—Tucked-net collar—Stocks—Linen collars and cuffs—Fancy sleeves—Trimmings for evening gowns—A net gown . . . . . . . . 138-158

CHAPTER XII
GOWNS: THEIR CHOOSING AND MAKING

Materials—Good taste and economy in dressing—Purchasing—Choosing the design—Measurements—Dressmakers’ terms, 159-189

CHAPTER XIII
RENOVATING

Cleaning linings—Sponging and washing silks—Removing spots from silks—Cleaning ribbons—Cleaning scarfs, etc.—Steaming velvet—Renovating woolen goods—Dry cleaning—Removing stains—Cleaning black lace—Cleaning white lace
CONTENTS

—Coloring laces—Whitening laces—Cleaning fur . 190–207

CHAPTER XIV
FANCY STITCHES

Featherstitch—Catstitch—Blanket stitch—Chain stitch—Outline or stem stitch—Cross-stitch—Seeding—Couching—
Hemstitching—French knots—Eyelets—Slip stitching. 208–218

CHAPTER XV
USEFUL HINTS

Miscellaneous hints for sewing—Plaiting and shirring—Braid trimming—Children’s garments—Storing away clothes:
Blankets; Woolen dresses and coats, men’s and boys’ clothing; Closets; Summer clothes; Velvet coats and suits;
Passementerie; Patent leather; Steel ornaments—Cutting down and making over—Shortening skirts—Remodeling circular skirts—Making over gored skirts—Making over covert coats—Remodeling furs—Insertion—Laces—Robes for room wear—The face veil—Care of gloves—Cleaning gloves: White and light-colored gloves; Chamois gloves;
Black kid gloves—Boxes for gloves—Care of shoes . 219–246

CHAPTER XVI
HOW TO PATCH AND MEND

Patches: Patching stripes or plaid; Half-moon patch; A hemmed patch; A catstitched patch; Mitered corner; Bias piecing—The outfit for a sewing room . . . 247–258

CHAPTER XVII
GOWNS FOR VARIOUS OCCASIONS

Outing suits—The rainy-day costume—Maternity gowns—Correct mourning—A bridal trousseau or outfit: A wedding gown . . . . . . 259–277
SIMPLE DIRECTIONS FOR HOME MILLINERY

By Mme. Anna Ben-Yûsuûf

CHAPTER I

SELECTING OF SHAPES AND MATERIALS

To select a shape—Colors—Frames and hats—To make simple frames  281-293

CHAPTER II

THE COVERING AND LINING OF HATS

Materials—Cutting a true bias—Binding a hat with velvet or silk—Covering a frame—Lining a hat—Silk hats—Quantity of material required  294-304

CHAPTER III

SHIRRED FACINGS AND CHILDREN'S BONNETS

Shirred hats—Facings—A child's bonnet  305-315

CHAPTER IV

MAKING HATS OF BRAID

Covering frames with pliable braid—Covering frames with stiff braid—Threads used in covering frames—Winter braids—Coloring and covering frames—Plateaux or flats—Leghorn hats, felts, and beavers—Quantities of braid required  316-327

CHAPTER V

TRIMMINGS

Feathers, wings, etc.—Flowers—Ribbons—Draping  328-336
CHAPTER VI
HOW TO CLEAN MILLINERY MATERIALS

Cleaning velvet: To steam velvet—How to mirror velvet—Cleaning silks—Cleaning ribbons—Cleaning chiffon and mousseline de soie—Cleaning lace—Cleaning feathers and wings—Cleaning felt and beaver hats . . . . 337-342