CONTENTS

CHAPTER I—THE STYLE ELEMENT IN MILLINERY . . . . . . 1

How to develop a sense of style and design. Hat lines. Headsize and nonheadsize hats. Eye lines. The hat block.

CHAPTER II—BASIC MILLINERY SUPPLIES . . . . . . . . . 10

CHAPTER III—MILLINERY MATERIALS . . . . . . . . . . . . 16

Classification of materials: felt, fur, wool, cotton felts, straw. How to choose the material. How to make a Dutch bonnet for mother and daughter. Patterns. Small, medium, large headsizes. Sequins and embroidery.

CHAPTER IV—WOOL-FELT BAGS . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 23

Instructions, patterns, and diagrams for overarm pouch bag, collar box, and other pouch bags.

CHAPTER V—PROFESSIONAL DETAILS OF MILLINERY . . . . . 28

CHAPTER VI—HALF-HATS . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . 40

How to make foundations for half-hats. How to make ear-muff. Dutch half-bound. curvette hats. How to trim half-hats.
CHAPTER VII—TRIMMINGS

CHAPTER VIII—HOW TO REMAKE AND RENOVATE

CHAPTER IX—HOW TO MAKE HAT FOUNDATIONS

CHAPTER X—READY-MADE FRAMES
How to use ready-made frames. How to cut patterns from a frame brim. How to cover frames, flat crowns, round crowns. How to make a cover band. “Do’s and Don’ts.”

CHAPTER XI—FRAMES—AND HOW TO MAKE YOUR OWN
Instructions for making and covering. How to make pillbox and visor hats. Hats that become you—common sense in choosing your hat. Novel cut-out crowns and side trims.

CHAPTER XII—CROCHET SECTION

READY REFERENCE GUIDE