My dear Ada:—

If in your busy days you should happen to think of my whereabouts, you could have no idea of them. I am sure I shall be here until the week before Christmas, when I go to my son's for the holidays. Then I start for the Atlantic coast.

Are you going to call at a meeting of the state R.S.L.? Mrs. Benedict thought for several weeks about the middle of this month. Hope it—is called it will be here in Milwaukee before I leave.

Did you get my letter sent to Phil? It was not necessary, but I was "too full for ultimacy."

And am glad, indeed, so foolish a hurrahism was voted down so heatedly. The suggestion of such a feasible ruling had no very daunt and Mrs. Adam’s order for the Progressive ticket, apparently.

I had a dear letter from Mabel (Mrs. Kestie) week ago, and shall give myself the pleasure of answering it, in the near future.

It must seem good to go to be at home again.

Oh, if we had a governor who would stand up for us as Gov. Averno and Mich. does for chile women! As he does a against organized liquor, he says:

"Let us ascertain of liquor once and make the State of Michigan just does that very thing in this. I believe ours is the most Whiskey-burdened of any State in the Union."
with love to you and kind regards to your family
