THE grain elevators "A" and "B" are owned and operated by Bartlett Frazier Co., and are among the largest in the country, having a combined capacity of 2,500,000 bushels.

They have been in operation for twenty-two years, and handle volumes of grain each year, most of which comes from the states of Minnesota, Iowa, and South Dakota. Manitowoc being a Natural Gateway for the East, this grain is brought here by rail and moved to lower lake ports by water; to a large extent thus relieving the railroads of the necessity of having to provide equipment. Both elevators are located on water front and large lake boats can be loaded as well as unloaded.
