lawn. Bottles were round with long necks.

In November 1941, Albert Prochnow sold his farm to C. Dahlmann and he to the present owner, C. Haelfrisch.

Starting in January 1942, Heberlein's supply of milk came from Wolfmeyer's Dairy, Brillion. Percy Lindner took over from Wolfmeyer.

When state laws became more stringent, Art got his products from Brillion Dairy and paper cartons of milk were purchased from Morning Glory Dairy.

First deliveries were by horse, Model T., Model A., Chevrolet, Dodge, and finally Chevrolet panel truck. Art made about 40 miles per day, rain or shine, cold or hot weather. He has served several generations of some families.

The Honeycomb Beauty Salon

In November of 1962, Mrs. Adolph Svatke opened a beauty shop in the building now owned by Milton Schultz on Manitowoc Street. She operated the Rose Beauty Salon there for four years and then purchased land from Tom McDonough to build a new building at this present site.

In May of 1972, Rose Svatke sold the Rose Beauty Salon to Norman Kubsch. The name was changed to the Honeycomb Beauty Salon. At the present time, Carol Haelfrisch is the manager.

Reedsville Jaycees

The Reedsville Jaycees were chartered in May of 1963. The Manitowoc Jaycees extended the Reedsville Jaycees with twenty young men needed to receive a charter from the United States Jaycees. The men had to be between the ages of 21 and 35.

The Jaycee age limit was changed around 1970 to the ages of 18 and 35. After they reach the age of 35 they cannot hold office or vote but instead become associate members.

In 1976, the name Reedsville Jaycees was changed to Reedsville Area Jaycees because now they include members from the surrounding area.

The functions of the Jaycees is to help young men develop themselves and improve their community. At the present time, they have approximately twenty-one different projects.

Jim's Shoe Repair

One of the oldest established businesses is still in operation and is owned and operated by Jim Winter. The business was started by the Kabat Brothers, the location then was at the place now known as Kabat's Country Gardens.

The next location was the former Maertz store in 1972 owned and operated by Harold Kabat.

Jim Winter bought the machines from his brother-in-law in 1975. June 1, 1975, he moved the business to its present location 407 Menasha Street. The machines which Ig Kabat used are still being used by his son-in-law Jim Winter. Some of these are 75 years old.

Jim is married to the former Margaret Kabat. They have one son Larry.
