

Alumni

ALTHOUGH many years have passed since the earliest of the Alumni diverted their destinies from dear old Menasha High, even still these graduates look back at their own school, for no other school can take its place. Classmates of former years are separated. The classes once scattered will never be united again, but each Alumnus can fondly smile at thoughts of good times in the halls of his old school and the flood of tender memories revives pleasant pictures of school days. Following is the list of the Alumni whose occupations we were able to discover.
