ERRATA.

The last paragraph in first column, Page 50, should read: procured by Gen. Lewis Cass from the Archives of the War Department of France, while he was officiating, etc.

The last paragraph in second column, Page 60, should be: In 1829, the Winnebagoes ceded a portion of their lands near the lead mines; and in 1833, they ceded all of their lands south of the Fox and Wisconsin Rivers. In 1838, they relinquished their claims to all of their lands east of the Mississippi.

The last paragraph in second column, Page 67, should be: The Post at Prairie du Chien instead of Green Bay.

Page 68, the date at head of page should be: 1812.

Page 88, in last paragraph, first column should be: Government lands, instead of Government bonds.

The second paragraph on Page 94 should be: thirty-two years ago, instead of twenty-eight.

On Page 149 should be: the High School Building was erected in 1862, instead of 1857.

Page 139, Geo. Mayer, Watchmaker and Jeweller. His name ought to be inserted as one of the firms doing business in Oshkosh in 1850.

The several town officers, mentioned in this work as present town officers, are those of 1879.

Page 155, last paragraph, should read: In September, 1835, the Menomonees ceded that portion of Winnebago County, which lies north of the Upper Fox River, except the small tract east of the Lower Fox, which was formerly Winnebago territory, and ceded by that tribe to the Government in 1833.
