The American Association for Agricultural Legislation

The AMERICAN ASSOCIATION FOR AGRICULTURAL LEGISLATION is a body of public spirited men and women consisting of farmers, business men, educators, investigators, and legislators in all parts of the country who are alive to the need of promoting our national interests by constructive agricultural legislation.

The work of the Association is directed along the following lines:

1. Scientific investigation of facts, careful studies of existing laws, consultation with those practically affected, followed by recommendations so carefully worked out that they will command the respect and attention of legislative bodies.

2. The organization of a central bureau to which individuals and organizations may come for assistance in the formulation and promotion of needed agricultural legislation and obtain the benefits of the broadest practical, historical, and theoretical knowledge of problems of production, and also of the larger social and economic problems involving both rural and urban people.

3. Promotion by publicity and education of such legislation as the results of the investigation indicate.

Committees are working in the following fields: food production, consumption and price; land settlement; education and improvement of rural life; marketing; taxation; rural credits; roads and transportation; agricultural extension.

Membership. There are no restrictions on membership. All those interested in the work of the association are invited to send a fee for the membership which they desire to the Secretary, Richard T. Ely, University of Wisconsin, Madison, Wisconsin.
