ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The author wishes to express his deep appreciation to Professor Henry H. Bakken of the University of Wisconsin for reading the manuscript and making so many helpful suggestions for its improvement; to Miss Virginia Schilling, also of the University of Wisconsin for her valuable help in the grammatical construction of the manuscript; to Manager Leifer of the Vernon County R.E.A. for his help on the chapter on rural electrification; and also to Rev. Urban Baer of Cashton, Wisconsin, for the inspiration accorded the author which caused this manuscript to be written. Whatever merits this book may achieve, the above named friends of cooperation deserve the greater share.
