Note: If double glazed sash is not obtainable, two sashes may be used in which case the outer sash should be hinged at the top. By doing this the heat loss through the glass will be only one half as much as a single glass sash.