The specifications of the dust collector are of a typical installation on the farm of Wm. Noyes, Beaver Dam, Wisconsin, and used with a hammer type feed grinder. It was made by a local tinsmith out of 26 gauge galvanized iron. Pail tails (A) are used to hang the dust collector from the ceiling or beams.