DEDICATION

This 1943 annual report of the Wood County Extension Service is dedicated to the hundreds of loyal and patriotic fathers and mothers who are carrying on in the job of agriculture while their sons and daughters are serving in the armed forces.

IN APPRECIATION

The office of the Wood county extension service is able to function only when it places itself in a position so that others can cooperate with it.

The Wood county extension service desires to express appreciation to county officials, Griffith State Nursery, Service Clubs, USDA War Board, AAA, Bankers Associations, Farm Credit, Farm Security Administration, Office of Civilian Defense, U. S. Employment Service, Selective Service Board No. 1, Selective Service Board No. 2, The Office of Price Administration, Food, Seed and Fertilizer Dealers, business institutions, American Red Cross, Radio Stations WFHR and WLXL, Wisconsin Department of Agriculture, Cooperative Farm Organizations, the Clergy and the press.