STATE FLAG

The frontispiece is a facsimile of the State Flag described in Chapter 1.08 of the Statutes of 1921, as follows:

"The Wisconsin state flag is of dark blue silk, five feet six inches fly and four feet four inches on the pike; the state coat of arms embroidered on each side with silk of appropriate colors; the edges trimmed with knotted fringe of yellow silk two and one-half inches wide; the pike nine feet long including spearhead and ferrule; the cord eight feet six inches long with two tassels, and composed of blue and white strands intermixed.

"Service flags may be of bunting or other material, of such size as may be required, and the coat of arms represented otherwise than by embroidery, all conforming to proportionate specifications of subsection (1)."
