Mr. & Mrs. David Healy, son of Jedediah Healy, built this fine house in the 1890's and lived in it for many years. Upon their passing, Ellis and his sister Alma, children of David, spent their retirement here. Ellis had a John Deere dealership in Honey Creek for many years. Mr. & Mrs. Ray Earle owned the house for quite some time. Mr. & Mrs. Richard Unneman are its present owners.

Allen Martin and later on Andrew Everett owned this house. Mr. & Mrs. John Tract lived here during the Thirties and early Forties. Joe Micketts was the next owner during the Forties. Mr. & Mrs. Charles Nelson, Mr. & Mrs. Claude Dalton, Mr. & Mrs. Richard Wood spent many happy years here from the Fifties on. Richard Woods and son David are its present owners.

Wendell E. Earle