

ILLUSTRATIONS AND PHOTOGRAPHS

- Color Plate 1. Southern brook lamprey adult and ammocoete from Wedges Creek, Clark County. Photograph by John Lyons.
- Color Plate 2. Two channel shiners from the Mississippi River, Pool 11, Grant County. Photograph by John Lyons.
- Color Plate 3. Spawning male kokanee salmon from Florence Lake, Langlade County. Photograph by John Lyons.
- Color Plate 4. Threespine stickleback from an unnamed tributary of Lake Michigan, Manitowoc County. Photograph by John Lyons.
- Color Plate 5. Two white perch from Lake Superior. Photograph by John Lyons.
- Color Plate 6. Ruffe from Superior Harbor, Douglas County. Photograph by John Lyons.
- Color Plate 7. Round goby from Superior Harbor, Douglas County. Photograph by John Lyons.
- Color Plate 8. Detail of round goby's fused pectoral fins. Photograph by John Lyons.
-
- Figure 1. Map of Wisconsin showing the major rivers and lakes mentioned in the text2
- Figure 2. Map of the distribution of southern brook lamprey in Wisconsin.....16
- Figure 3. Map of the distribution of channel shiner in Wisconsin28
- Figure 4. Map of the distribution of greater redhorse in Wisconsin36
- Figure 5. Map of the distribution of kokanee salmon in Wisconsin49
- Figure 6. Map of the distribution of threespine stickleback in Wisconsin52
- Figure 7. Map of the distribution of white perch in Wisconsin55
- Figure 8. Map of the distribution of ruffe in Wisconsin58
- Figure 9. Map of the distribution of round goby in Wisconsin63