G3
B28

Contents

SECTION I 5

WHO ARE THE GERMAN REFUGEES?

I. The Post-war Volksdeutsche Refugees. II. The Post-war Reichsdeutsche Refugees. III. Earlier Volksdeutsche Population Transfers. IV. Miscellaneous Groups of Refugees.

SECTION II 13

WHERE ARE THE GERMAN REFUGEES NOW?

The Potsdam Conference: Its Role. The Number of Refugees in All Zones. The Distribution of Refugees.

SECTION III 20

WHAT ARE THE PROBLEMS OF THE INDIVIDUAL REFUGEE?

A Hypothetical Case.

Location of Families. Location of Housing. Location of Employment. The Special Problems of Children and Youth.

SECTION IV 30

WHAT IS BEING DONE FOR THE GERMAN REFUGEES?

A Law or "Bill of Rights" for Refugees. The Significance of the Law.

SECTION V 35

WHAT ARE THE POSSIBILITIES FOR THE GERMAN REFUGEES?

Emigration. Assimilation. Community Responsibility. Governmental Responsibility. Allied Occupation Authorities: Their Responsibility. Needed: International Action. The Role of Foreign Voluntary Agencies.