Dear Ada: -

I am so sorry I made you all the trouble about the change. But you know, don't you, how much I appreciate your accomodating yourself to our bell ringing, and such.

I have been advertising steadily from the folder which you sent. If you

Have any specially telling single thing for me to use on the final night, Wednesday, I'd be glad to have it. Otherwise, I'll go on the same way.

I never meant to jump into dress reform! - But it seemed to me too bad to leave it the way of
30s. -

Write about the headquarters.
And my love to you. And good fortune for the 30th.
So much ^{with} love - Anna.
