

Company Officers

E. P. Hamilton
President

The Hamilton Manufacturing Company was founded in Two Rivers in 1880 by the late J. E. HAMILTON. The present officers of the firm are:

E. P. Hamilton.....President

H. G. Evans.....Vice-President

W. G. Dickson...Secretary-Treasurer

E. P. HAMILTON came to the company in 1919. He received his preliminary training in nearly every department in the organization before succeeding to his present responsibility in 1941.

H. G. EVANS came to the company in 1923. In addition to being Vice-President, his duties also include the general direction of the company's selling activities.

W. G. DICKSON became active with the company in 1923. He had already established himself as an outstanding accountant with a Pittsburgh firm before joining the HAMILTON organization.

H. G. Evans, Vice-President
W. G. Dickson, Sec'y and Treas.

★ BRIGADIER GENERAL GEORGE F. LULL
U. S. Army

Brigadier General George F. Lull, a native of Pennsylvania, was born in Scranton on March 10, 1887. After receiving his early education, he entered Jefferson Medical College, receiving his M. D. degree in 1909.

A military career was chosen as his profession in September, 1912, when he entered the U. S. Army Medical Corps. Here he has served continuously through all grades, from First Lieutenant to Brigadier General.

Brigadier General Lull has seen action in France during World War I and has served also in Panama and the Philippine Islands. He received his C. P. H. degree from the Harvard Technology School of Public Health in 1921, and a Dr. P. H. degree from the University of Pennsylvania.

At present, Brigadier General Lull is the Deputy Surgeon General of the U. S. Army at Washington, D. C.

★ LIEUTENANT COMMANDER T. H. JONES
U. S. N. R.

Lieutenant Commander T. H. Jones, U.S.N.R., is a veteran of World War I. He entered the United States Naval Reserve in 1917, served as Head of the Department and Instructor in Navy Regulations at the Naval Officers school, Pelham Bay, N. Y., and later, in the Cruiser and Transport Force and the Naval Overseas Transport Service.

From 1920 to 1929 he commanded the 3rd Battalion of the U. S. Naval Reserve and also organized and enlisted the first group of Minneapolis Naval Reserve Cadets for aviation training. He retired with the rank of Lieutenant Commander. He wears the Victory medal together with the Naval Reserve medal with Star.

In 1941, while on the staff of the J. G. White Engineering Co., New York, constructors of the Navy Gun Plant at Louisville, Ky., he was recalled to active duty and assigned to Naval Officer Procurement. He is now Senior Patrol Officer, Navy Shore Patrol, Milwaukee Area.