

ALGOMA, 1,911

Kewaunee

The Algoma Panel Company manufactures plywood panels or veneers built from thin sheets of wood glued under pressure. This is the world's pioneer organization in the plywood industry. Throughout the summer there are 250 men on its pay roll while in the winter they employ about a hundred more. The other outstanding products of this Kewaunee county town are Trumaid Nets, O. K. Ensilage Cutters, Lake trout, American cheese and plumbers' woodwork. However, the plywood industry commands first place in prominence in the community.

ALGOMA RECORD HERALD

Circulation 2,100

Friday

Founded in 1873, this weekly has developed to be an organ of an advancement in its community. Its present editor is H. H. Heidmann.

B W

ALMA, 970

Buffalo

Located on the Mississippi river, Alma serves as a trading center for the surrounding community. Butter, cheese, live stock, poultry, eggs and fish are shipped from this point. River fishing is the most important resource of the community.

BUFFALO COUNTY JOURNAL

Circulation 1950

Thursday

This newspaper was founded in 1861, but the names of the early editors up to 1874 have been lost. From 1874 to 1890 John W; Degroff served as editor, then came Edwin F. Ganz who continued till 1913. From this later date Theodore Buechler, Jr., has edited this Buffalo county newspaper

B W

ALMA CENTER , 461

Jackson

Chief products of this town include cheese, strawberries, stock cattle trays and corn. Cheese is the most valuable to the section. This community has numerous trout streams that attract annually great numbers of fishermen.

ALMA CENTER NEWS

Circulation 500

Thursday

In November 1901, the first number of The News was struck off by Richardson & Peabody. Today this weekly is edited by C. M. Potter.