

GREEN COUNTY HERALD

Circulation, 1600

Wednesday

This weekly, founded in 1877, has been published in both German and Swiss. Its present editor is Fred L. Kohli.

---

 B W

---

MONTELLO, 1112

MARQUETTE

Favored with plenty of water power, several diversified industries have become established in this Marquette county town. These include machine shops, granite polishing works, saw mills and flour mills. Montello has six rural routes.

MONTELLO EXPRESS

Circulation

Friday

Chas. Barry is the editor of this Marquette county weekly that was founded in 1860.

---

 B W

---

MONTFORT, 598

GRANT

Agriculture and mining are both important in this community of Grant county. Montfort has two rural routes.

MONTFORT MAIL

Circulation, 550

Thursday

This weekly was founded in 1899 by Karstock, Gering & Company, - they edited it for two years and in 1891 the present editor, R. D. Quick, took the head position.

---

 B W

---

MONTICELLO, 677

GREEN

Planning, flour, woolen mills and cheese factories have their hom in this community of Green county. Monticello has five rural routes.

MONTICELLO MESSENGER

Circulation

Wednesday

In 1896 this Green county newspaper was founded. Its present editor is S. Earle Richards.

---