

This booklet is dedicated to Mr. Herbert Adams,
a former editor of the Ballville Recorder and to all the men and women of the community of Ballville who lived these events during the years of 1940 through 1949.

Waves upon the beaches
wash the footprints out to sea.
Torn pages of a calendar
tell of days that used to be.
Sand sifting through an hour glass records time passing on.
Each in its own perspective
remind us of time gone.

Rosemary Ziehli
April 1984

