

WISCONSIN ACADEMY OF SCIENCES, ARTS AND LETTERS

The Wisconsin Academy of Sciences, Arts and Letters was chartered by the State Legislature on March 16, 1870 as an incorporated society serving the people of the State of Wisconsin by encouraging investigation and dissemination of knowledge of the sciences, arts and letters.

OFFICERS

PRESIDENT

Gerald Viste, Wausau

PRESIDENT-ELECT

Jerry Apps, Madison

IMMEDIATE PAST PRESIDENT

Joyce Erdman, Madison

VICE PRESIDENTS

John Rusch (sciences), Superior

John Mominee (arts), Platteville

Richard Boudreau (letters), LaCrosse

SECRETARY-TREASURER

Pat Blankenburg, Madison

COUNCILORS-AT-LARGE

Jon Harkness, Wausau

Ann Peckham, Middleton

Nancy Noeske, Milwaukee

Karen Johnson Boyd, Racine

James Crow, Madison

John Wilde, Evansville

James R. Johnson, River Falls

Daniel O. Trainer, Stevens Point

COUNCILOR EMERITUS

John W. Thomson, Mt. Horeb

COUNCIL-APPOINTED POSITIONS

LIBRARIAN

Jack A. Clarke, Madison

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR and DIRECTOR—JUNIOR ACADEMY

LeRoy R. Lee, Madison

EDITORS

Kathryn and Philip Whitford, Transactions

Patricia Powell, Review

