HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES U. S.,

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 3, 1884

Rev M. Dix Dale

Malden Mass. My dear Sir.

I should have written you some days ago. I said the authorities on receiving your letter. They have since appointed your friend and I suppose it is satisfactory.

I shall be glad to accomodate you in any way I can.

Yours truly

Benj W. Jones